Schedule Arranged

Manager Merle Chessman, of the Glee Club, has succeeded in arranging for the annual trip to Eastern Oregon. The schedule of the trip is as follows:
Tuesday, Dec. 15, Salem.
Wednesday, Dec. 16, Portland.
Thursday, Dec. 17, Hood River.
Friday, Dec. 18, Pendleton.
Saturday, Dec. 19, Baker City.
Monday, Dec. 21, La Grande.
Tuesday, Dec. 22, The Dalles.

An attempt is also being made to arrange for a concert at Astoria. About thirty men will take the trip. In addition to this trip the club will probably give two concerts in Eugene, one before and one after the trip.

The club has excellent talent and all the men are working hard. The selections of music for the club this year are better than ever before. In the line of stunts one new man will be taken on. It is intended that the program shall be more varied than heretofore and approach more nearly to the nature of a lively minstrel show.

Conference Reports at Y. M. C. A.

Reports from the Northwest Conference held at the Breakers, Washington, last year were given at a meeting of the Y. M. C. A. on Friday night, by members who had attended the Conference. Those who spoke were:

H. A. Dalzell, "The General Nature of the Conference"; Ben Williams, "Sports and Stunt Night"; Dr. Leonard, "Fellowship Between the Men and the Leaders"; H. A. Scullen, "Life Work Meetings"; James K. Lyman, "The Missionary Department of the Conference"; Harold J. Rounds, "The Bible Study Side of the Conference."

Earl Kilpatrick, treasurer of the association announced the concert of the Tennessee Jubilee Singers to be given under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. on Thursday, November 5th.

During the past month the book exchange conducted by the Y. M. C. A. has been a very busy place. Over two hundred dollars worth of books have been handled there; and large numbers of postal cards, arm bands, and pennants have been sold to the students.
