ALUMNI BALL GRAND SUCCESS

Memory of Victory on the Gridiron Aids Dancers in Enjoying Themselves

Thanksgiving night was the occasion of the annual alumni ball in Portland. It was the affair of the week in metropolitan college society circles.
The "old grads" were out in force and the hall was crowded. A good number of students were also in attendance. The recently won victory was uppermost in the thoughts of everyone and contributed largely to the general feeling of mirth and jollity which prevailed. The large hall of the Masonic Temple, where the dance was held, was simply decorated with pen-nants and streamers in Oregon colors.

President and Mrs. Prince Lucien Campbell led the grand march, with representatives of the football team immediately following.

The patronesses for the occasion were Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Miss Luella Clay Carson, Mrs. George E. Chamberlain, Mrs. Cyrus Dolph, Mrs. Lewis McArthur, Mrs. John C. Ainsworth, Mrs. Zera Snow, Mrs. A. A. Morrison, Mrs. Henry W. Goddard, Mrs. William D. Fenton, Miss Henrietta Failing and Miss Kate Holman.

Miss Jennie Lilly entertained the girls of the Gamma Delta Gamma at her home in Portland on Wednesday evening.

Doctors Give Dance

A number of Oregon students attended an enjoyable dance given by the Delta Gamma Kappa fraternity of the North Pacific Dental College at the Oregon Yacht Club, Tuesday evening. The Eugene guests of the fraternity were the Misses Erma Miller, Sibyl Elliott, Grace McGladry and Cora Wold, and Messrs. John Kelly, P. W. Carroll, Horton Nicholas and Winn Nicholas.

Oratorical Preliminary.

The date for the preliminary tryout for the Intercollegiate Oratorical contest is rapidly approaching, and prospective contestants should lose no time in rounding their orations into shape. About ten men have already signified their intention of entering.
Out of these, six will be selected to enlisting the names has already passed.
The date fixed for the contest is December 12.
