Busy Week in Society

On account of the nearness of exams, and the necessary quietness of the coming week, the past one has been made much of. One of the most enjoyable of the affairs of the week was the party given by the Alpha Club on Friday evening. Cards were played during the early part of the evening and later the floors were cleared for dancing. Delicious punch was served throughout the evening and refreshments after the dancing.

The Dormitory Club gave another of its charming dancing parties on Friday night. A number of guests were invited to enjoy the splendid dancing floor of the boys, who proved capital hosts.

Saturday evening was pretty well filled with the lecture by Mercer at the Y. M. C. A. meeting, Conwell at the Presbyterian Church, the Kloshe Tillacum reception and several informal affairs.

The Kloshe Tillacum "At Home," on Saturday evening was a success.
The crowding generally incident to such functions was eliminated by careful and unobtrusive management on the part of the hostesses, who showed the guests through the well-appointed house and served ices in the dining-room.

On Thursday evening a surprise party was given Wm. Williams in honor of his twenty-first birthday. The evening was spent with games and music.
A light lunch was served. Those present were Maud Beals, Fay Clark, Lilah Clark, Mrs. Cartwright, Vera Gwin, Madge Hamble, Ersu Hamble, Daryl Belat, Alice Stoddard, Vera Sanderson, Celia Hager, Lida Garrett, Nellie Mc-Niell, Ethel Barnard, Earl Strong, Frank Swift, Earl Luckey, Bolton Hamble, Byron Goodall, Clarence Stodard, Charlie Barnard, Herbert Barrett, Clariss Sweeney, Leon Ray and Ben Williams.

Earl F. Strong, manager of tennis, will endeavor to construct courts in time to be beaten down by spring rains.
The freshman football team ban-queted at Otto's, Friday night.

Bill Hayward says, "As far as I know, Multnomah and O. A. C. will sign up a three year contract for an annual Thanksgiving game."

Fritz Dean, '11, assistant-manager of the Oregon Weekly, has been detained at home a good part of the week on account of illness.

Ira Manville, '12, has been out of college the past week on account of sickness.

The class in special machine shop work are at work constructing a lathe.

James Cuning, '08, has been chosen teacher in the Eugene High School.

"Brick" Michael is pledged to Sigma Nu.
