ALUMNAE GIVE SCHOLARSHIP

Portland Women Announce Terms
Under Which $200 Scholarship
Will be Granted

The Oregon branch of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae offers to the young women of Oregon a scholarship of two hundred dollars at the University of Oregon for 1909-10.

Application should be made to any member of the scholarship committee, on or before May 15, 1909, in an informal letter, in which the candidate should state what is her preparatory school, what course she wishes to pursue at the University, and whatever further information she may consider desirable.

The committee does not expect to hold a competitive examination but will base the bestowal of the scholarship upon the evidence presented by the candidate of her ability and prospects of success in her chosen course of study. The committee will appoint the candidate who in its judgment is best fitted to do excellent work.

MRS. E. R. ROCKWOOD, 567 1-2 Glisan St., Portland, Oregon.

MISS JESSIE GODDARD, 490 Mill Street, Portland, Oregon.

MISS JANE STEARNS, East Portland High School, Portland Oregon.

Delta Alphas Hosts

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the year was the delightful dancing party given by the Delta Alpha fraternity on Saturday evening. The boys had decorated their house beautifully with streamers of the fraternity colors, large sword ferns and a quantity of cut flowers. The orchestra was screened from view by beautiful palms and evergreens. Mr. and Mrs. Pratt were patronesses. Toward the close of the evening a delicious supper was served.

Whittlesey Will Entertain

Der Verein Germania will meet Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Ethel Evans. The most ambitious program of the year has been announced for this occasion, the central feature of which will be a fairy tale by Mr. Pete Whittlesey. The club is contemplating the possibility of allying itself with the national federation of German societies.

Prescott Supreme

A close and exciting game of golf took place on the links south of town Saturday between Registrar Tiffany and the President's secretary, Bert Prescott, in which Prescott won by a narrow margin. The prize was a supper for four.

Special Editors Chosen

Miss Fay Clarke, '12, and Mr. B. H. Williams, '10, will be joint editors of the special edition of the Oregon Weekly to be issued during April by the Christian Associations of the University. Both are members of the regular staff. They will choose their own assistants and have complete charge of all departments of the publication.

Arthur Lewis, '12, was visited last week by his father.

W. C. Nicholas spent the week-end in Portland.
