

EVENTS OF THE PAST WEEK

Approaching Exams Cut Down Functions and Quiet Times are the Rule Among College Folk

Professor Luella Clay Carson spent Saturday and Sunday in Portland.

Miss Barker, the cataloguer at the Library, has been suffering from a severe attack of poison oak.

Miss Elizabeth Russel of California was a visitor at the Beta Epsilon house last week.

Miss Mabel Kuykendall entertained informally with a Bonfire Party on Friday evening.

Dr. H. D. Sheldon went to Woodburn last week to address the high school graduates there.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Van Dusen of Astoria visited their son, Arthur Van Dusen, '10, at the Sigma Nu house last week.

Saturday evening the Kappa Sigmas entertained a number of their friends with a delightful informal dancing party.

During the week-end, Miss Ray Woodruff entertained the Chi Omegas at her home in honor of Miss Florence Winsor, who is soon to leave for the East.

Miss Bessie Kidder, '08, who has been teaching in the Roseburg High School, visited with Helena Hughes over Sunday at the Kloshe Tillacum house.

Mrs. DeCou, wife of Professor E. E. DeCou of the Department of Mathematics, left last week for Wisconsin where she will spend the summer with her mother.

Friday evening, Miss Pearl Johnson, '11, entertained in honor of her brother, Louis Johnson, who was twenty-one. The time was spent pleasantly in games and contests. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Miss Neita Harding, '09, is at the Gamma Phi Beta House for Commencement. Miss Harding completed her work at the close of the first semester and after a pleasant trip East has returned to be graduated with her class.

Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Mrs. Charlotte Zieber and Mrs. Lida McIntosh entertained delightfully with a reception at the home of Mrs. Campbell. They were assisted in receiving by Mrs. H. D. Sheldon, Mrs. S. M. Barker, Mrs. Samuel Elv Eliot, and Mrs. F. G. G. Schmidt. The rooms were artistically decorated with the flowers of the season, an effective color scheme being carried out in each room. Punch and ices were served by the Misses Sara Riddle, Alice Larsen, Jessie Bibee, Pearl McKenna, and Mildred Learned. Misses Madeline Walker, Louise Gray and Maud Beals also assisted with the guests.
