THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON MONTHLY is published monthly during the college year by the Associated Students of the University of Oregon. Subscription $1 per year; 50 cents per term; payable in advance. Single copies, 15 cents. For sale at the Book Stores. Address all business communications to William Cake.

THE MONTHLY solicits stories, sketches and verse from the student body and Alumni. [Entered at the postoffice at Eugene, Oregon, as second class matter.]

Support Needed This year should be one of unprecedented progress for the University of Oregon in all its activities. Caution was the by-word of the campus last year. That no word of criticism should lessen the chances for the appropriation, progress was slower than it might otherwise have been. Now with greater resources at hand, than there have ever been before, fuller development and greater progress will surely come. With this development should come an increase in the literary feeling. Scarcity of copy should not be the cloud over the head of the editor, but rather more copy should be on hand every month than could possibly be printed.

Let everyone support the Monthly. If you cannot write yourself, urge your friends to write. It is to the interest of every student that the University of Oregon should have a representative magazine.

Innovations This is the time to establish precedents. Our university is young and growing; our customs are neither many nor varied and if we wish to be distinguished as the University of Oregon, it is now we must begin to do those things necessary to make us distinctive. Last year there were many innovations; Freshman and Sophomore rhetoricals; the jollification for the girls; "College Hour;" the women's edition of the "Weekly," and
