

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Sun-shine, beautiful sunshine.

The foot-ball boys are all smiling.

We expect a fine monthly entertainment next week.

Chas. Payne was a visitor at the school during the week.

Why does Joshua Johnson look so happy? Promoted.

Chemawa boys won the game at Month-mouth. Score 23-0.

Mrs. Westfall has not been very well during the past few days.

Mrs. Cloutier's plants add very much to the appearance of her class room.

Paul Hill has developed a most marvelous mustache in the past few days.

The harness maker boys are all anxious to enter the new shop which is nearly completed.

Adolph Farrow and Winnie Stoddard made a very handsome groomsman and bride-maid.

Miss Miller and Miss Bowman attended the Sunday School Convention at Kaiser last Sunday.

William Ferris was married to Mamie Stoddard on New Year's day and have gone to live in Salem.

Who was the mustached stranger in the dining hall on Monday evening who caused such a sensation?

Irene Campbell attended a party at the home of Miss Pierce of Salem during the holidays.

Some very handsome and beautiful presents were received by pupil and employes on Xmas.

The Estelle Reels visited the Deweys last week. They passed an enjoyable as well as a very profitable evening.

The boys played lots of foot ball during the holidays.

Jessie Crook, who is at Siletz sent in a nice club of subscriptions last week.

Band practice every day. At the end of the year we will have one of the best bands in the state.

Mrs. Woods has quite recovered. Her friends are all glad to see her pleasant, happy face again.

Peter Lucier is a pleasant addition to Room 5. His work is neatly done and he shows great interest in his studies.

You would hardly know the little bears they are growing so fast. They will soon be as big as Marguerette and Jeanete.

We wish the farmers in the neighborhood of Chemawa would keep their cows in a pasture and not let them run the roads like tramps.

Miss Miller took the girls out for a walk yesterday afternoon to enjoy the sunshine and pick the wild flowers. No place like Oregon.

The girls of Chemawa are doing excellent work in school this year. Look over the examination papers and see for yourselves. Look out boys.

R-v. Parsons of Salem, tied the knot for the newly married couple, Miss Mamie Stoddard and Mr. William Ferris. The AMERICAN congratulates.

The young ladies Literary Society consists of a lot of ambitious girls who are rapidly forging ahead and are anxious to have the best society in the school.

Sam Morris, from Lapwai, Idaho, is one of the most faithful students in the school. He has come to Chemawa to learn and by his studious respectful habits is gaining many friends.

Florence Phillips left for Portland Thursday morning where she will take a position as housekeeper in the home of Col. Duane, Collector of Internal Revenue.

The faithful members of the Reliance Society met in their usual room on Thursday evening. With the exception of the debate the program was carried out as arranged.

An AMERICAN reporter overheard Mr. Childers telling a friend that he danced a real genuine cakewalk while back East. We would like to see him on the floor once ourselves.