

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. Cartheon is improving in health.

Chas. Alexis is now an expert pianist and composer.

The senior class will begin their chapel orations next week.

Reuben Sanders, of the class of 1909, is a visitor at the school.

Rev. Mr. White of Salem conducted Sunday evening services.

Raymond Clay is one of the most faithful students in the 5th Grade.

Mrs. Buford, of Salem is spending a few days with her friend, Miss Dufae.

Misses Kuhn and Florence Freetag were the guests of Fay Charles this week.

Who was it that said "I have leased the last of the coasts to the sewing room?"

Ada Skuttick, a member of the senior class, left Sunday for her home in Washington.

Mr. Stoulenmeyer says that some one ought to write an article on "How to get rich."

Mr. Davis, at one time an employee of the Pyramid School, is at Chemawa visiting Max. HDB.

George Otney is working hard in season and by his gentlemanly manner has won many friends.

Louis John is the latest addition to the Printing Dept. Louis is a smart boy and is only ten years old.

From Farmer Childers' store house the pupils are now enjoying onions, carrots, beets, turnips and cabbages.

William Mahone is not only one of the best of class but he is an expert printer. We send him in our "big"

Rev. Mr. Winans of Salem assisted Mr. White and attended the Y. M. C. A. meeting on Sunday evening.

David Mike of Lummi received a handsome Indian basket and mat from his father which he offers for sale.

The Estelle Beck reported one absentee at their last meeting. What was the matter with the absent member?

The Y. W. C. A. girls held a social meeting on Sunday after Sunday School. It was conducted by Miss Fagan.

"Ten Nights in a Barroom" is being studied by some of the pupils of Mrs. Osher, Miss French and Mrs. Campbell.

Chas. Larsen and James Smith were unable to attend the anniversary, but one was here but each cracked a light.

Bert McCrea, the smallest boy in the class of the 8th Division, is hard to be when it comes to an example in Athletics.

The pupils of the seventh grade are conducting convention Thursday preparatory to holding a state election next week.

Alex Bayles, who has been appointed has not yet accepted the position of Industrial Teacher at Hays Valley. One has arrived at the place of his new labor.

Chemawa's new laundry is nearly completed. Before another edition of Autumn, Chemawa will have a fine laundry building and ready for its operation.

There are said to be over five thousand applications for the different positions to be located at Ilwaco, Oregon.

A spirit of roving jaywalks Chas. at present. The latest is the Blue Trolley. 5 number of employees have in contracts.

The sets of has been the recipient of several of Unlabeled Vore, Kringman. They were recommended to Mr. B. when he was in Washington. They excellent and will add much to our society from this.

The new Industrial Shop building is nearly completed. The steel is roughed in; the electric conduit is in place. The finishing touches have to be put and the building will be ready soon. It is a fine building and Chemawa is justly proud of its new home for its industrial workers.