KEEP ON THE SIDEWALK!

Return the civilities you receive, and be ever grateful for favors.

The happiness you bestow upon others
is reflected back to your own bosom.

Perform a good deed, speak a kind word,
bestow a pleasant smile, and you will receive the same in return.

Rules For Pupils At The Chemawa School.

1. Must wash hands and face and comb
hair before going to meals, school or chapel.
2. Must blacken shoes.
3. Must change white collars.
4. Must change soiled handkerchiefs.
5. Must change torn garments.
6. Must wear working clothes when at work, school uniforms at school, and Sunday uniforms on Sunday and special occasions.

7. Must not spit on floors, halls, stairs or walks. It is a dirty ungentlemanly habit.

8. Don't sit on the tables, desks or in the windows.

9. Keep your rooms as clean every day of the week as on Sunday.

10. Use your tooth-brush every day.

11. Be prompt in line, for work, school,
meals and at Chapel.

12. Don't insult the teachers or employees of the school.

13. Be in earnest at your lessons, and faithful at your work.

14. Don't be slouchy anywhere.

15. Keep buttons on your clothes and coats buttoned up.

16. Be straight. Throw your shoulders back; hold up your heads.

17. When you walk, don't drag your feet along over the floor like an old man of eighty. Move as if you had some life and ambition.

18. Don't be dishonest.

19. Don't smoke or chew tobacco.

20. Don't swear or use hideous language.

21. Don't talk evil about your neighbors.
If you cannot speak kindly say nothing.

22. Don't fight.

23. Don't hang on the fence or swing on the gates.

24. Don't destroy furniture, or other property that belongs to the school.

25. Don't deface the walls, wood work or the books with pencil or chalk.

26. Don't have the dog head, or try to play the "amant Aloué."

27. Always respect the old and poor.
You will be old some day yourself, and may be poor.

28. Have some purpose in life, and make each day's study and labor bring you nearer to accomplishment.

29. Don't drink liquor of any kind.
Keep away from saloons and people who go there.

30. Be neatly groomed.

31. Always lift your hat when meeting
ladies.

32. Save your money and invest it wisely.
