

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

The football contest was well attended.

More order was observed in the school fire drill this week.

Fire drill is frequently and very well executed by the school pupils.

The boys of the mixed grade sang very well at the monthly entertainment.

Mr. Williams, teacher of the third division has been suffering from a severe cold.

Lella Smith made her debut as a solo singer on Saturday evening and did very well.

The teachers' meetings are held weekly in the principal's office on Tuesday from 4:15 to 5 P. M.

Four boys of the printing class are members of the 8th Division - B Class, and two are members of the senior class.

Rev. Mr. Winans and the Rev. Mr. White of Kake Island Alaska, conducted the chapel service on Sunday night.

Some very creditable studies of the Alaskan Eskimos were read and written by the pupils of first division last week.

The little girls look very well in their new blue uniforms. Now be sure to keep them clean and the buttons all on, girls.

Mr. Brewer stepped into the printing office Tuesday morning and subscribed for THE AMERICAN for Miss Gertrude Brewer.

Joseph Maria is taking hold of the first division work very nicely, and will soon be of much assistance to the teacher of that division.

George Bernier of '00 is back again at the University and hard at work. It is stick-to-it-or-lose-it that wins success in the battle of life.

Harry Holt of '00 has left Willamette University and gone to Kichau where he intends to farm this spring and summer and will open a law office in North Yakima next fall to take up the study of that profession.

Everyone feels sorry for the small boys at the prospect of their losing their "School mother." Mrs. Alder has been like a mother to them.

John Baub made some very interesting electrical experiments in the school room last Monday. He showed the other seniors how to make a magnet.

Ethel Parrish and Alex Dupuis performed like veteran actors on Saturday evening as Mr. and Mrs. Bollingbroke they sustained their parts in the best possible manner.

Foster Underwood has a large army of small boys to control as he is in charge of the "wood brigade." They seem to be a happy crowd and Foster knows how to manage them.

Miss Bowman's classroom certainly has some good looking boys and girls. The pictures shown in "Uncle Joe's Album" made us proud of our pretty girls and handsome boys.

The employees of the Pines Indian agency hold $200 worth of stock in a Texas oil company. Hope they will strike oil but would remind them that that is a very slippery investment.

Those who work in the Employees' Building are very grateful to William Hunt for the large supply of pitch which they find at their doors of late. He must know how hard it is for a woman to whistle-knifing.

Proposals at Chemawa are at a premium to judge by the flood of applicants for the two positions soon to be vacated here. Mr. Potter must be glad that the Civil Service Commission attends to these matters.

The Estelle Riets elected new officers at their last meeting. They are now as follows: President, Marie Skovlyger; Vice President, Dea Gust; Secretary, Euntie Sisk; Treasurer, Louise Murry; Sergeant, John Dowdle; Asst.
