

Jose Cook is a policeman at Siletz.

Mrs. Thies is suffering from LaGrippe.

Henry Balch has gone to his home in Puyallup.

Mrs. Campbell has the most prettily decorated room in the school building.

Mr. George Bennett of Siletz has been visiting his brother, Arthur, for a few days.

John Bantz of the Senior class has been taking the planting boys during the cold snap.

At the command of Mr. Jack Frost, the laundry was closed for a few days this week.

Katie McManis, one of our old former pupils is now Mrs. Wadsworth Orton, and lives in a comfortable home in Siletz.

James Smith has moved to the Small Boys Home, where he now assists Mrs. Smith in raising her little fellows.

Hezekiah DePue, Cassie, Farness, Bennett, Lawson and Sartor attended the play, "Pie for the sake" at the Salem Opera House, Friday evening.

By Clark is the proud possessor of a beautiful calligraphy which has a number of beautiful blooms on it.

Mrs. Chandler's beautiful plants that were such an ornament to her school room, are now proud looking objects. The result of Mr. Frost's visit.

Randolph Messerby, who has been working in Sharkey's Harness and Saddle Factory in Portland, is spending a few days with his friends here.

The King's Daughters are doing good work in embroidery and crocheting. Any body wanting work done in the above lines will do well to call on them.

Anna Coffelt was joined our peering eyes at the beginning of this school term in rapidly mastering the trade. Anna holds from Port Stanley, Washington.

Mrs. Staudenmeyer and Woodin have made most artistic specimens. The objection to wearing what is usually a most unattractive article has been entirely removed by the artistic hands of these talented young profession.

Invitations to attend the commencement at Carlisle have been received by a number of Chemawaws. It would be a great pleasure to all undoubtedly to attend one of the future commencements. Perhaps some day, some of us may be able to accept the invitation. But 3000 miles is a long ways to go.

A local branch of the League of Success Club is to be established at Chemawa. Mr. Johnson Williams, Mr. John Allen and Mr. Charles Lawson are the progressive young men who are at the head of this important League. We wish it the success it deserves.

An Emerson Reading by the pupils of Mr. DePue's division was well received. The selections were good. The expression excellent, The enunciation clear. Every word was distinctly heard. The exercise throughout was a credit to both teachers and pupils and gave much pleasure to the audience.

The hand-connect on Tuesday night was the best we have had. "The Robust Girl" was played most beautifully. Mr. Staudenmeyer deserves much credit for the hard work he has done with the band. The results of the work and time he has given to the organization and perfecting of his band must be very gratifying to him. Supervisor Chiscraft said that the Chemawa Band was second only to the Carlisle Band.

Last Friday morning the pupils of Mr. Williams' class recited an instructive and entertaining program in stamp consisting of a sketch of the life of Henry W. Longfellow, who is a favorite poet of Chemawa students, brief descriptions of his principal works, and quotations from several of his best poems. At the close Miss Reason complimented those who had taken part in such a pleasing and well rendered exercise. She then spoke of Longfellow's place in literature selected the circumstances which led to the writing of his first poem which she recited and compared with his later work following with the story of "The Bridge." After which Charles Carter of seventh division sang by request that old but ever beautiful song.