

Pupils' Uncorrected Items.

Mr. C. P. Radcliff is working on the telephone line. He is an uncle of Edward Davis.

The girls branch of the Y. W. C. A. are reading "In His Steps," and enjoy it very much.

The stone masons are at work on the foundation for the new boiler at the plumber shop.

The blacksmith boys are making two new hacks.

The heads of the department and names of all the employes were studied by the fifth division. This was our civil government lesson.

The heating plant under the school building will soon be in use again, as Mr. Olman is busy repairing the old section that prevents its use.

Willie Heater left the baker shop and is working in the kitchen.

Miss Benson, our principal taught the eighth division Thursday.

The weather is now very pleasant, after being cold for a short time.

Peter Underwood is taking charge of the little wood boys in the mornings.

Miss Emma Williams is progressing rapidly in her cooking at the Hospital.

Emily Ledwouts is now taking music lessons on the organ and she is doing fine.

Julian Jim is the author of some of our latest jokes that are now going the rounds.

Wednesday the geography class of the eighth grade took an imaginary trip over the Southern Pacific Railroad.

The 8th grade have finished the Natural Advanced Geography, and will now take up the Commercial Geography.

It will soon be time for Saint Valentine to make his appearance. We know he will surely come to Chemawa.

The men are working on the steam heating plant, and the 8th IV began to study about laying the pipes.

Two of our printer boys, Bert McCona and Henry Lovelace, who were on the sick list, are now around on duty.

The long days are now returning which reminds us of summer when the sky is blue and the air is sweet, then will the children decorate our streets.

Peter Lucier says the chicken house will soon be completed. Then look out for the new chickens. The boys who built the house expect some fried chickens in the spring.

Joshua Johnson a very promising young man of this school, left for his home in Alaska. Joshua is a good honest christian young man. We all miss him, especially the band of which he was a faithful member.

Our matron Mrs. Thiers is on the sick list. Mrs. Westfall takes her place while she is sick, and Miss Emily Downie is the assistant while Mrs. Westfall sets the head superior on the girls' side.

The new heater to be used in the boiler room, arrived yesterday, which will be a benefit to the school in time of cold weather, especially on days like those that struck Chemawa a short time ago.

Noted Visitors.

Edwin L. Chatercraft, Superintendent of Indian Schools, and H. J. Phillips, Asst. Superintendent of the Puyallup School, spent a few days at Chemawa last week.

Mr. Chatercraft was superintendent of this school about seven years ago and was given a most hearty and cordial welcome by many of his old employes and pupils who were delighted to see him back at his old home once more.

On Tuesday evening Mr. Chatercraft and Mr. Phillips addressed the pupils and faculty in the Assembly Hall.

Mr. Phillips has filled the position of Principal and Assistant Superintendent, at Tacoma for twelve years and is one of the highest and most competent educators in the Indian Service.