

LOCAL & PERSONAL

Wild flowers are making their appearance.

Tom Young, as Simon Stude, was simply immense.

Silas Moon has returned from his usual chopping.

Miss Washin begins an addition to our orchestra.

Richard Ducker made a flying trip to Astoria Saturday.

What was the matter with "Ten Nights in a Bar Room?"

Happy is the boy or girl who owns a bicycle these days.

Elvira Parish, nee Mahitahai Cartwright, was very bewitching.

We are pleased to see Mrs. Thores around again in her usual good health.

Ruthie Brown and Edna Henderson visited Miss French last Saturday.

Mrs. Carlisle learned to ride a bicycle faster than anybody we ever saw.

The Klondike Waltz which the band played on Washington's Birthday was heartily applauded.

Room No. 2 has an orchestra which furnishes music while the little boys scrub, scrub, scrub.

That boy in Idaho will be proud when he wears the nine cent hat Silas Booth is making him.

The Normal Record of Chico, California, has reached our desk. It is a new, well edited magazine.

In all the world there is no more beautiful weather than we are at present enjoying at Chemawa.

Mrs. Carlisle and Mrs. Sherrard walked to town on Tuesday afternoon returning on the 5 o'clock train.

Mr. Potter has given the natives some arithmetic questions to solve. We are sure they can do it.

Mary Jindra is practicing a little piece called "Oval Polka" and we are sure she will soon be able to play it very well.

The baker boys are glad to have the old combination oven taken from their shop where it did nothing but take up room.

Justin Gibson is one of the police boys of the school. When he sees a lady carrying something heavy he offers his assistance.

Julia Solomon and Miss Bostel of the Fifth grade drew some very pretty baskets illustrating their studies of basket making.

Col. and Mrs. Pratt sailed on the steamer Celtic for the Mediterranean Sea immediately after the Catholic commencement.

Who's there is Knight in Mrs. Clouthier's room, there is Day in Miss Bowman's room and Mrs. Campbell has perfect control of the Moon.

Miss Irene Campbell taught her lesson on Wednesday. Irene likes teaching and will make a first rate teacher one of these days.

Mr. Potter spent Sunday in Salem. He attended service at the Methodist church and heard Dr. Coleman, the new president of Willamette University.

Mrs. Hall presented a beautiful pair of silver excelsior-plates to Father Daly in mass which he holds at the school on Sunday mornings.

A very pleasant sociable on Friday evening which would have been more thoroughly enjoyed had there not been some false notes heard in the orchestra.

It is now time to serve the system run by the Literary Department from the Industrial Instructors. See, brood! See! It is now up to you gentlemen to say when we will partake.

Mr. W. L. Cunnock, of the Troy Laundry company, dropped off over a couple of hours on Tuesday to look for our new laundry. He said we had the best institution laundry on the coast.

The Girls' Branch of the Y. W. C. A. met on Sunday afternoon from two to three in the girls' reading room. A very interesting meeting was held, the topic being "Child Jesus." We hope that all of the girls thus belonging to the Branch will be good utility members, and attend every Sunday after noon.