

LOCAL & PERSONAL.

Work and school detail * wapped again. Mr. Cabane dined with the Campbells' on Friday.

Lenora Hartman has been detailed to the News Cafe.

An excellent song service was held on Sunday evening.

Miss Jackson spent Saturday with her Chemawa friends.

Wm. Ingram has been substituting as teacher in room 6.

Miss Bowman gave us a good talk in R. R. on Sunday morning.

Somebody whispered to us that Joe Britton is an expert cook.

Mrs. Carthage and Miss Seaman took a drive to town on Monday.

We hope Miss Bowman will make a success of her new undertaking.

Hessie Boley has succeeded Myrtle Sperry as Miss Benson's orderly.

There was a party of young boys' whittlers at the school on Wednesday.

Next Friday's topic will be "Peace" and we hope more girls will attend.

The Y. W. C. A. girls had a small but good meeting on Sunday evening.

There was too much noise in the halls during the debate on Thursday night.

Elmer Lafton, of Umatilla is a new pupil. He has entered the fifth division.

Miss Bowman and Mrs. Clarence attended the play in Salem on Friday night.

The "T. L. C's" can beat the first team yelling even if they can't beat them playing basket ball.

Mrs. Thiese went to Portland on the morning train Tuesday and returned on the evening train.

Miss Ruth O'Hare who was transferred to Chemawa from Payallup as seamstress has arrived and is on duty.

Notice.—Chemawans, take a look at the inside cover pages. Read the advertisements and patronize the advertisers.

The hygienic and tulips are in bloom.

The Y. M. C. A. boys allow too many things to interfere with their meetings. Nothing should prevent a good attendance on Monday night after church services.

Two healthy young men were joined in the bakery. We are satisfied that they are good industrious young men namely Frank Hamilton and Christopher Gwynn.

The T. L. C. Basket Ball Team are hard at work every noon so that next time they play they can beat instead of getting beat, watch out for the "T. L. C."

Mary Jurha is still working for Mrs. Campbell. Mary will be an A. No. 1, house-keeper if she keeps on improving as she has done in the past.

Hurvas Dowitt says the snipe are so thick when he goes that you can kill a hundred at one shot. Claus Haynes never went hunting very much.

Andrew Smith made his first appearance as a public speaker at the Excelsior debate on Thursday evening and showed decided ability as a debater.

The Sabus Elias will give their splendid entertainment in the school auditorium Monday night.

The ground around the school building looks very pretty and green. The teachers will soon be attending to the flower beds.

Issie Campbell and Mary Jurha went to town Saturday to attend the matinee The Two "Orphans," which they enjoyed very much.

Miss Gertrude Brewer played in town on Monday evening. Miss Gertrude's piano solo was enjoyed very much at the Y. W. C. A. social.

Miss Miller is an early riser and is out on her school in the morning gaining health and vigor while many of us are snoozing in our beds.

Quite a number of our pupils attended the matinee, "The Two Orphans" in town on Saturday afternoon. They were under the care of Supt. Fuller and Mrs. Carthage.