

May Jane doesn't go to town very often, but when she does she keeps her eyes open and comes back to the school full of new ideas.

LOST, between Chemawa and Fair Grounds, a lady's purse with $1.10 in it. Finder, being the owner to this office and receive reward.

The painters are wearing (with their stencils) a broad smile since some inspiration has reached them and made it possible to continue work on our school books.

Miss Semmons has been offered and has accepted the position of principal teacher at the Coffeyville school. We all congratulate Miss Semmons upon her promotion and wish her unbounded success.

Miss Guthrie thought she could play basket ball as well as any one, on Saturday evening she presented a comical appearance juggling the big ball around between halves.

There is a pretty little dress Irene Campbell is wearing, not at made by school, no. Nobody else Indian girls but the employees' children get the Industrial Idea at Chemawa.

Chas. Alexis' senior oration in chapel on Friday morning was one of the best, if not the best ever delivered in that room. The rest of the speakers will have to work hard to equal it.

The following new members have been added to the Extension Society; Thos. Otto, Peter Lauer, Fred Adams, Raymond Coy, Angelo Jefferson, Chas. Hoffman, Wm. Lovelace, Asahel Beard, and Dan Nelson.

Last Saturday Joe Charles opened up and showed his covers by baking some real hot, delicious ginger-bread, if you don't believe him the boys who ate it. They will tell you that it was good, or they would not acknowledge it.

The Y. W. C. A. Rev. with met on Monday afternoon from two o'clock to their usual place. The topic being "How" led by Mary Jane. We are sorry to say that over half of the girls were absent, twenty-seven being present and thirty-two absent.

Miss Semmons and Miss Benson enjoyed the pleasure of going through the Hospital, Girls' and Boys' buildings with the inspectors last Sunday. They saw nice clean rooms throughout their trip.

Lots of work in the meeting-rooms these days. Mrs. Woods has faithfully filled the temporary position of stenographer which has been vacant since the resignation of Miss Laufman. There are no strikes in Woods' family.

The first girls' basket ball team will play the Coffeyville Agricultural College this evening, and tomorrow evening play the young ladies of Willamette University. Although these teams are first class, our girls will have to play good ball to maintain their victory perch upon their banner.

Irene Campbell is being complimented on all sides for her setting in the play of "Ten Nights in a Bar-room." Gertrude Becker says she put her foot down on it and will not have Irene act any more of those sad parts like Eva in Uncle Tom's Cabin and little Marc Morgan in Ten Nights in a Bar-room.

Boys who are so careless, or thoughtless, as to willfully break windows deserve to pay for them. Andrew Alfred is wondering how many the large dining room windows he broke will cost him. Mr. Woods estimates the cost at $2.25. A rather costly careless quarter of a minute. The carpenters that pay to do without having to repair after careless boys.

The Mansuet Success Club wish to thank Dr. Butler for his very fine lecture of last Saturday evening. The Club board of his power and eloquence as a lecturer and would not too much they had the pleasure of last night to him. A rare treat was anticipated and as we thought it would be too good for just a few, invited the whole school. Our anticipation was more than realized, and the impression which Dr. Butler left upon his audience will not be easily eradicated. Doctor has offered his services to the Club whenever they are desired. What is the matter with making him an honorary member, boys?
