

names of the following girls who wished to become members of the society: Esther Lane, Julia Grider, Matilda Lambert, Anna Surfor and Julia Salomon. These girls were gladly welcomed into our society. After this was the election of new officers which means follows:

Lanion Woodworth, President; Emma Jules, Vice-President; Josefa Maria, Secretary; Emily Downie, Treasurer; Esther Lane, Secretary-at-large; Emma Williams, Editor.

We then turned to the addresses which were delivered by the newly elected officers. After the officers had all taken their places we received a challenge for a joint debate from the Excelsior Society which was accepted. There being no more business before the house, we then proceeded with the program which was as follows:

Prayer Book,	Vina Woodworth.
Song,	Violet Dupuis.
Hymnic Reading,	Maud Stoddard.
Recitation,	Eva Woods.
Prayer Book,	Lettie Lane.

Question for debate, Resolved: That reading is of more importance to us than mathematics.

Affirmative,	Seven (7).
Dis-puta Davis.	Estou Jules.

We had just started with the debate when the bell rang for dismissal so we adjourned.

The Excelsiors.

The Excelsior Society had a grand attendance at their meeting and elected about ten new members. The preliminary business dragged somewhat so that the debate was not as interesting as usual, not enough time being given for it. The following was the program:

Recitation,	Wm. Ingersoll.
Current Events,	Earnest Brower.
Song—"Love's Old, SW. of Song."	Jane Ross.

Chas. Hicks was on the occasion but was not present.

The subject for debate was, Resolved: That crimes of the white men against the Indians have been greater than that of the Indians against the white man.

Affirmative,	Negative.
Albert Monum.	Lawrence Toly.
Harry Noble.	Andrew Smith.

The judges decided in favor of the Negative.

A challenge was sent by the society to the Nonpariels for a joint debate which was accepted. A committee was appointed to make arrangements.

The Dewey Lyceum.

The Dewey Lyceum elected new officers at their last meeting.

President, Wm. Allen; Vice President, Wm. Heater; Secretary, Robert Cameron; Sergeant-at-arms, Chas. Billy. The Program Committee appointed by the president was Jason Wannsey as chairman with Muri Poland and Levi Surfor. After a short speech by each of the newly elected officers the society took up the subject for debate.

The subject for discussion was, Be it resolved: That the horse is of more use to man than the bicycle.

After debating on the subject for about an hour, the judges decided in favor of the affirmative.

Estelle Reels.

At their last meeting, the Estelle Reels added four new members to their fold. They now have forty members and we are glad to note that they are all alive and active. The following program was rendered.

Song,	Irene Sartor.
Recitation,	Tillie Sauvignier.
Recit.—	Archie Hayes and Ruth Barrett.
Song,	Addie Cameron.
Recitation,	Mary Juris.
Recit.—	Fanny Stok.
Song,	Lea Charles and Amy Williams.
Prayer Book,	Mabel LaChapelle.
Recitation,	Lillie Patton.

Resolved: That the horse is more distinctive than water.

Affirmative,	Negative.
Jennie Brown.	Leona Murray.