

LOCAL & PERSONAL.

Henry Korte has been promoted to the 8th division.

Miss Browning is making a success of her new undertaking.

It tried hard to snow to-day, but didn't succeed very well.

Mr. Arthur Williams is substituting as teacher in Room 1.

Charles Newton has made for himself a very neat little box.

Levi Barney entered the blacksmith shop this week as apprentice.

Mr. Potter, Mrs. Carlsons, Helen and Timmy attended church in Salem Sunday.

Mrs. Potter has been transferred to Segy Colony School, Oklahoma, as Assistant Master.

The painters have finished the settling and it now covers the hall of the Superintendent's cottage.

The boys detail is changed and they are all getting down to hard work in their new respective places.

The Girls' Branch are reading, "The Life of Christ." The girls are very much interested in the reading circle.

There will be a match game of basket ball between the Chemawa and Willamette boys' teams this afternoon.

Cecilia and Myrtle Johnson of North Bend, Wash., arrived here yesterday and will remain here at school.

Supt. Potter sang "Old Black Joe" at the Elks' Minstrel and Prof. Stouffer was not in charge of the orchestra.

The first girls' basket ball team played the Junior boys on Wednesday evening and were defeated 19 to 15.

The Girls' Branch of the Y. W. C. A. are reading, "A Story in a Prison."

Haynes DeWitt and Eugene Gaffe have been detailed to the carpenter shop.

We have two new Chapel Janitors, Julian Jim and Edith Bellenger. Now look out for a new and looking Chapel.

Rev. George of Salem preached to us last Sunday evening an excellent sermon.

Mr. Potter sang "Old Black Joe" very nicely the other evening at the Elks' Minstrel Show. He looked like Old Black Joe. Some of the boys and girls did not recognize him on account of his disguise.

Last evening the Escelator and Xouppiel Societies had a joint debate, an account of which will appear in next week's issue.

We are pleased to note that the Dewey Society is getting along better and better. They had a very interesting meeting last night.

Miss Miller entertained a number of employees and friends socially in the gymnasium last Wednesday. A pleasant good time and hope this will not be the last.

Wanted at the bakery Dept. two more good smiling young men for the A. M. detail. For further information apply to Mr. D. E. Brewer, Disciplinary.

Mr. Potter's piano arrived and is in his quarters. Now look out for music. Somebody suggested that the Superintendent's cottage should be called Music Hall.

The Kootie Red Society is making right up to the front. Every meeting they have some visitors. They don't debate very much, but their long programs are excellent.

M. H. Decker, who learned his trade in Chemawa, left Monday for Seattle where he has been engaged for a printing Company. He is to receive $4.50 per day. As Richard was a faithful student and not afraid of work he is sure to succeed.

We see in the Native American where Amy Regnell of Chemawa is one of the speakers who will take part in the presentation of Phloxes for the silver medal, March 7. We hope to see Amy carry off the prize.

Alfred Gillis delivered the senior oration in Chapel on Friday morning. Any school would be proud to hear one of its pupils produce such an excellent composition. The delivery was good and all who heard it expressed themselves as being well pleased.
