

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

STRAWHATS are now in bloom.

Mrs. Carthage has been quite sick again.

Meggie Dwyer returned to school this week.

Excellent choir rehearsal on Tuesday night.

Mrs. Dean of Salem, was a visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. Scott is acting matron in large boys' quarters.

Mrs. Patten has moved with her family to Salem.

Mr. John Allen attended choir rehearsal on Tuesday.

We long the Business Club's intends starting a Film Club.

Sam Morris is taking good care of the milk this month.

Quite a severe cold storm visited us on Thursday afternoon.

Percy Johnson is now the editor of the Publishing House Journal.

Peter Lusher has gone with his father for a short visit to Woodburn.

Dr. Clark gave the school a lecture on digestion on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Clonier and Miss Brewster spent some day at Woodburn.

Mr. Oliver of Williams University presented his on a Sunday night.

Leo G. He left the printing office and is now busily engaged on the farm.

Messrs. Arthur Bond and James Cook occupied for us as we go to press.

Mr. Gibson returned he and paid the printers a visit Wednesday morning.

Thursday Miss Brundage was the recipient of a lovely basket of flowers.

Irwin Campbell went to town on Wednesday. He got a cold and went with her.

Kenneth Mitchell is the first man from the camp to be home before the straw hat.

Martin Sawyer, Max Doring, and L. G. Smith are making quite good straw hats.

Pretty sick looking places in the disposition. They don't seem to get over their colds.

Mr. W. Hester of Salem is having out places and getting them in excellent shape.

Hundred of rabbits were on the grass between the cottage and the boys' quarters on Saturday morning.

James Smith took charge of Mrs. Campbell's room on Tuesday evening while she conducted choir practice.

Lella LeMaster should be congratulated for her interest in her music. She practices during the most hour.

Mr. Allen needs't have blushed when asked to respond to the toast at the band musicale the other night.

It only requires the expenditure of a very little time and money to clean the and keep things perfectly clear.

Mr. Storchhammer is very popular but now among the ladies who regret his loss to the article denunciation of their views.

Wills Haysman has joined Miss Dobb's anti-smoking class. He takes his lesson every Friday night when the other boys are at the movies.

Abba Collier is a most earnest student. He also continues to practice faithfully. She got a little more of a cold which she got in the morning.

Nettie Duggan is now beginning to mend is progressing rapidly in her music. She is now learning a waltz, and she will soon be able to play a duet with Miss Dobb for company.

A fine crop of the great honey yesterday. A man who was handling wood saw many of the eggs, but no damage was done.

A new record in the latest time-keeping by one of the fishermen. It was made secured by J. W. Charles, G. H. and C. Smith, Walter K. and J. W. Smith, under the supervision of Mr. Joseph Dean, superintendent.