

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Industrial afternoon Friday.

Dusty could just think of it. Frost-hats are becoming fashionable. Tooming Peter is leading a wild school. Joe Wiggins makes a good little soldier. We hear that Mrs. Brewer is improving.

Mrs. Campbell has been sick in bed all week.

Mary Thompson class 28, is visiting the school.

Mrs. Carstair is enjoying bicycling these lovely days.

Herbert Campbell is home for the Easter vacation.

The song of the lawn-mower is heard around the office.

The sixth grade studied about hills and trenches this week.

Isn't a runaway a messy looking thing when he is marching back.

There was great excitement over the "Haymeville" - "Bunks" game.

Irvin Campbell and Eva Woods went to church in Salem on Good Friday.

Harry Noble, with a number of his boys, is getting the grounds in good shape.

If you want to see some up-to-date Keweenaw things go to Mrs. Weacht's room.

Miss Niggle Dunlap's organ has arrived. Now look out for some melodic music.

We have missed Mrs. Campbell's presence this week from among our teaching list.

The new janitors are working. They keep the school building in good condition.

Inspector Jenkins and Supt. Peter visited the school rooms Friday morning.

George Nelson is an cheerful and polite that one enjoys seeing him in the office.

The judges are all being cultivated and the school grounds will be more improved.

"The Helmer" contains a letter written by Mrs. Pratt, while in the Keweenaw room.

Miss Hanson's room was papered by the Pilot Duff and, well, the Latin speaks for itself.

The paint boys have varnished and plastered several large looking places in the school kitchen.

Lots of blue duck going to the sewing-room these days. Look out for new spring dresses.

Mr. Becker is making flower gardens. He is acting as Mrs. Becker's assistant in gardening.

Some stillborn pigs afforded lots of amusement to all except the driver on Thursday.

Joseph Maria and Miss Dolan have been teaching No. 2 pupils during Mrs. Campbell's illness.

The boys have been promised another indoor bath.

Fire drill this morning. All hands turned out quickly. How carry out is less than a science.

Mrs. Dowdle is visiting her children school, and is thinking of taking up her school in Salem.

Raymond girls, will Mr. Jenkins be proud of you when he meets you ten or twenty years from now?

Steve Bush has gone into the bakery to learn baking, cake-making and the confectionery business.

Harry LeMaire is getting along fine with his trade. He is making a solid clothes now for himself.

Mr. Campbell is fixing up his new beds. There will be beautiful rows around the college in a month or two.

The A class of the eighth division has six Californians and seven Washingtonians. Where are the Oregonians?

Won't somebody water the meadow of his class on the ground? There seems to be stumps as much as wheels and hoys.

Yeggie Nelson has been promoted and the new drum in the band. He is practicing hard and will make a fine musician.

Miss Marie Derry who visited us on Wednesday was a welcome visitor at Chemawa. She used to help with the clerical work in the office.