

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. Sherrard has learned to ride the bicycle.

The band concert Thursday noon was delightful.

The officers entertained their friends on Wednesday evening.

Paul Winslow from Grand Ronde has been enrolled as a pupil.

Inspector Tinker and Superintendent Holland are at Phoenix school.

Larry McIlhenny is acting as assistant instructor in the small boy's building.

Who was it that asked Chas. Larson: Who plays on that "balloon" (bassoon)?

Mrs. Cloutier and Miss French conducted Domestic Science department this week.

Sam Morris is breaking in a new pair of shoes, but he doesn't appear to mind it.

Moses Raub was very unhappy in his chair on Thursday, but didn't he look fine.

Mrs. Westfall has received the appointment as teacher and is teaching the second grade.

William Lovelace left this morning for his home at Dayton to attend to some business.

Mr. Campbell and Mr. Overman spent Thursday working at the new chicken house.

A base-ball game will be played at Mt. Angel on Saturday between Chemoqua and Mt. Angel.

Georgia Girard met with quite a painful accident on Thursday. She ran a needle in her foot.

Joseph Teabo has a new bicycle. It was presented to him by Edward Teabo his brother.

Ed. Teabo, brother to Joseph Teabo, our baker, was a visitor at the school the first of the week.

Mrs. Holverson and daughter, Miss Lizzie, of Salem, were guests of Mrs. Campbell's on Thursday.

Olga Booth is excused from the band for the present. A wire ear makes the band a little too much for him.

Chapel service has been resumed and now we have some songs and hymns before every school session.

Messrs. Shondenmeyer, Larson and Farnia visited Salem Thursday evening and returned Friday morning.

It is hard for some of the boys to distinguish the difference between "Olson," an instrument and "H-doo," a de comment.

Although our base ball boys have had but little practice, yet they are now planning a game with Mount Angel for next Saturday.

That rain last Tuesday caught several of our bicyclists in town and some wet looking individuals were in Chemoqua that evening.

Miss Irene Campbell looked very sweet Easter Sunday in her beautiful dress, which was a present from her aunt, who lives in the East.

Julia Grindler is acting as assistant dining-room matron and Minerva McDaniel has taken her place as sergeant in the girls quarters.

Herbert Campbell is enjoying his Easter vacation with his friends at Chemoqua, who are pleased to have this jolly young gentleman in their midst.

Cheerfulness makes success. So says Inspector Jenkins and we believe it. Don't scow and sigh. Be up and doing and let every measure that you enjoy doing.

The painters put a new coat of paint on the arch over the gateway through which we pass daily, and are now putting the finishing touches on the front of the office.

Inspector Jenkins handles type as though he loved it. If he treats our old, worn-out type like that we wonder how he will expect us to treat our new type, when we get it?

Mr. Cassie is using his spare moments in studying telegraphy. He has an instrument fixed in the rear of the office and the clicking of it may be heard into the "wax sun" hours.