

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Knatched Friday afternoon, on account of the planting!

Let us have more fraternal effort in our societies.

Myrtle Helbert is a dining room girl at the hospital.

Albert Payne's aunt of Vancouver is visiting the school.

How did you really plant a tree in honor of Pinto?

William Budgett is working in a tailor shop in Portland.

We hear that the new society, the Websters is flourishing.

Mr. Scott suggests that Irene plant a dogwood tree for PINTO.

Miss O'Hara, who has been suffering with sore throat, is recovering.

Dr. Clark was a visitor to the Domestic Science class on Monday afternoon.

Prof. Matthews of Salem conducted chapel services on Sunday evening.

Mr. Overman has been quite ill, suffering with a severe attack of neuralgia.

Mrs. Brewer is out and hopes soon to be able to resume the duties of her position.

Andrew Pearl, and William Budgett visited Portland the latter part of last week.

Randolph Moservey left last week for Portland where he will work in a harness shop.

Mrs. Hill says the deer are getting thinned. They won't eat anything but hickories.

Vivian Graham ex-pupil came down from Oregon City Tuesday and visited Miss Heaton.

How many of you can tell the names of all the trees we have on the grounds? If you don't know, find out at once.

The pupils of the Fifth division spent a delightful afternoon on Thursday studying nature. Beautiful and ferns wild flowers in the woods north-west of the school.

Messrs. Foster, Campbell, Southworth, Woodin, Colless, Hunt, Gilman and Fetten all went to the opera house on Wednesday night.

Mrs. Carthage, Helen and Thomas Fenn went to Portland on Thursday morning. They will stay with their friends here about a week.

The flower beds around the school building are being raised and tilled and will soon add much to the beauty of the Academic department.

Chas. Hicks, John Harris, Theo. McElly, Willie Baughman and Charles Geop attended an entertainment in Salem on Wednesday evening.

Mr. Childers gave the printers a race two Wednesday evening, to some delicious curry which Mrs. Childers popped and submitted from Salem. It was certainly Mrs. Childers popped it.

Mr. Childers was a little under the weather the first of the week, but is O. K. now and is out every chance he can get practicing on his bike.

Misses Wiggins and Sackman attended the baseball game at Mr. Angel and met the Clatsop 2nd team badly beaten. What's the matter with Clatsop this year?

Our 2nd team must practice hard but we are not get discouraged because they were beaten by the Mr. Angel boys. Anything worth winning is worth hard work.

A short program was given in chapel in celebration of Arbor day on Friday morning. The afternoon was devoted to the planting by the different classes.

Miss Dagnard made a flying trip to be sister Mrs. Armstrong who resides in Portland, leaving Chemawa Sunday morning and returning Monday afternoon.

Mr. C. W. Dodge, traveling agent for the South to Pacific Railroad, was shown the different departments of the school by Mr. Henderson the first of the week.

There are two new reports in the school. Messrs. Moon and Underwood of the Fifth Division. What they don't know about the market prices has't worth much.