

The "Literaries"

The "Literaries" are ready for the fray on the 14th when they will cross bats with the "Nonparietists." They expect to be able to win this year as they did last, without practice but they had better get in and back and make a sure thing of it.

The following is the line up:

J. Williams	Catcher
J. Cross	Pitcher
T. W. Porter	First base
Chas. Larson	Second base
John Allen	Third base
B. H. Bremer	Short stop
W. F. Churchill	Right field
H. S. Schneidermeyer	Center field
E. W. Clark	Left field
L. E. Woolley	Sub.

Estelle Reels.

Miss Estelle was a welcome visitor during the evening. The following program was rendered:

Song,	Ellie Bremer;
Song,	Ada Dupuis and Hazel Child;
Reading,	Mabel LaChapelle;
Bibles,	Mary Goodell;
Song,	Clorinda Blodgett;
Quarrels,	Faustine Sisk & Louise Murray;
Mon.	Annie Hayes;
Psychics,	Annie Hayes;
Recitation,	Alice Risk;
Recitation,	Miss Howman;

The Refinco.

The program for the Refinco last Thursday evening consisted of the following:

Duo-Pittman, Chas. Cutler; Story, John Harris; Current Events, Chas. Allen; Reading, Chas. Beggs; Reading, Alfred Gilbreck; Martin Wollan; Question box, Society.

Debate Resolved that the death penalty should be abolished.

Affirmative,	Negative,
Chas. Cutler,	Martin Wollan,
Yeggie Nelson,	Willie Williams,
Ergene Goff,	John Harris,

The Nonparietists.

The Nonpariet Literary Society met in the chapel at the usual hour. There was a large attendance and all seemed prepared for the evening's work. Part of the evening was spent in the election of new officers, the new officers are the following: Emma Williams, President; Lucy McCloud, Vice President; Emily Downie, Secretary; Winnie Stoddard, Treasurer; May Blodgett, Sergeant-at-arms; Leila LeMaster, Editor.

The new president then took the chair and called upon both the old and new officers for a speech. As there was no more business we proceeded with the program.

The following numbers were rendered:

Vocal solo	Winnie Stoddard
Historical reading	Mollie Cayton
Bibles	Bella Bourguier
Comic reading	J.ephine Johns
Recitation	Elvira Parrish

Question for debate, Resolved, That Washington is a greater state than California.

Affirmative	Negative
Vina Woods with	Leila Smith
Maggie Dupuis	Joseph Maria

The judges' decision was in favor of the affirmative. We adjourned at 9 o'clock.

The Emerson Library Society held its regular weekly meeting last Thursday evening and rendered a very interesting and well prepared program. The leading attraction of the evening was the story of "Red Banner" by Thos. Young which delighted the audience. Misses Sisk and O'Hara were visitors of the evening.

The following program was rendered:—Opening address, Peter Lamm; Recitation, Andrew Peck; Reading, Andrew McKay; Story, Thos. Young; Instrumental duet, Larsen and Rany; Jokes, Wm. Nations; Current events, Nicholas Lewis.

Question for debate:—Resolved, that immigration into the United States should be prohibited. Affirmatives, Peter Lamm, Chas. Larsen and Andrew Smith. Negative, John Risk, Wm. Mahone and Thos. Young.