

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

It is time to get to work on overpriced Tonic Cards.

The most addition to the express office is a new truck.

Major Wilkins of Canby visited the school on Thursday.

What's the matter with a non-bowling alley for Chemawa?

Mr. Woodie has a brand new, cleanless, up-to-date Columbia bicycle.

Mrs. Campbell says her class how to work this in the real world here.

Joe Carter is fast becoming an expert baker. His hands are fast and up-to-date.

The girls and boys in the table show were glad to welcome Mr. Overton again.

We expect you girls to get great benefit from the Y. W. C. A. excursion at Forest Grove.

Mrs. Lois Henderson is filling the void of a friendless at Chemawa during Mrs. Brewer's illness.

The Domestic Science class on Thursday afternoon had a long wait before the supplies arrived.

Maggie Dowdle says that the lunch board used in the Domestic Science class looks like a bare one.

Mr. Campbell and his detail of irregulars are doing some excellent work in beautifying the school campus.

Julia Stacey has started to going to school again to R. when Mrs. Johnson, left work in Salem having moved.

Some fine they next week the basket-ball girls will go to Salem and have their picture taken for the Sunday Oregonian.

Mr. Brewer, who made a business trip to Nipahally and Tacoma, Washington, last week returned yesterday.

The girls basket-ball team, and their captain, Albert Payne, won, in Salem Wednesday and had their pictures taken.

Mrs. Campbell went to Salem with her friend Mrs. Halverson with whom she spent several days, returning on Sunday evening feeling much better for the change.

Mr. John Westig has been appointed school guard and caretaker. He is thoroughly experienced in that line of work, and we hope to see big results from his work.

Edna Delaney who has been ill for some time attended the Domestic Science class of the Fifth grade on Thursday afternoon. All her friends were glad to welcome her back to school.

Mrs. Mary Hill has been promoted to position of Large Boys Matron, Mrs. Johnson promoted to position of Small Girls Matron, and Mrs. Wood appointed him chiefly as house-keeper in the hospital.

Fat boys who work in the kitchen department. It is not the fire starting you do that makes your work look nice and neat, but to give it a nice appearance, it depends how well you can put the finishing touch.

All the girls helped cook the rice. Violet Dickey washed the potatoes, Violet baked a pie, Maggie Dowdle boiled the steak and made the jam. Elvira Parrish baked a pie and made the sauce. Della Pilsant and Maggie Dowdle made the chicken tart. Tilly Lindhart set the table and they all ate the dinner and washed the dishes.

The Watsons Literary Society met at usual time Thursday evening between November. The program was not very good on account of some being absent. The question for debate was resolved that a person gains some knowledge by reading less by observation. The judges decided in favor of the negative speakers.

Last Saturday evening about fifty of the pupils and employees arranged a surprise party for Mrs. Carlson on her birth day. A lovely evening was spent, and the refreshments were prepared to a queen taste. A beautiful album was presented to Mrs. Carlson as a small remembrance from her friends after which all went to their homes feeling that they had a most enjoyable time.