

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Beautiful Lewis.

The garden is looking fine.

Mrs. Campbell is on the sick list.

The new detail will go into effect Monday.

Mrs. Henderson has a new Rambler bicycle.

Mary Thompson is visiting friends at school.

Best McCrex has purchased a new baseball bat.

The new engine will be put in as soon as possible.

Andrew Pionard says he will cover the back up.

The superintendent's carriage is under construction.

Henry Koster has been detailed as a school janitor.

Victor Graham is down from Oregon City on a visit.

Quite a number of parents are visiting their children.

The blacksmiths are manufacturing a sausage grinder.

We would like to show our eastern friends our beautiful garden.

There is two car loads of gravel on the truck for school use.

We will soon have plenty of let-uses and raffles on the table.

Willie Winder, a harness maker, went out to work this week.

The blacksmiths made a new iron swing frame for the wood saw.

The water is up and is ready for sawing wood at any time.

James Spencer is working on a fine stable driving harness.

No more sole leather, so don't ask to have any shoes manufactured.

Quite a number of boys went out to work this week training boys.

Simon Booth is fixing the window frames for the hospital cellar.

Mary Thompson class '91, is attending Willamette University in Salem.

Stephen Knight witnessed the play Julius Caesar last Saturday night.

Mr. Hilby is charge of the paint shop during Mr. Staudenmeyer's absence.

Arthur Bassel, a former pupil of Chemawa is here on a visit from Houtz.

The Executive Library Society disbanded for the season last Thursday evening.

Mr. Hill has new pair of tires for his bicycle. He also has a wheel for sale.

Mr. Calcutt says the clearing up stoves in Oregon are as numerous as the flies on old Gen.

The Lawns show much improvement as the result of mowers and scythes being used dilly.

The young strawberry plants which were set out this spring are looking thrifty.

The new quarters for post office, express office and railroad office are nearing completion.

Farmer Christen is now repair of his wheel and it will take him wherever it wants to go.

The new boiler is now in the place and as soon as the pipes are unshrouded will be ready for use.

Stephen Knight has joined the hagg through that reads the American. Let others do likewise.

The U. S. Flag has a hard time of it these stormy days being hoisted up and down frequently to avoid getting wet.

Miss Freese gave the members of the Bellows Literary Society some good advice at their last meeting.

The strawberry plants are being hoisted and cultivated by the gardeners, under the able management of Mr. Westley.

The ladies girls have organized a baseball team our readers will not doubt hear to be from Houtz in the future.

The "muscles" are getting tired of waiting down for the "train." Saturday is the next date on the list.