

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Chas. Cutler has made the frames for the addition to the small boys' quarters.

The carpenters have the addition to the small boys' quarters ready for the plumbers.

Apas Gandy was skinned from the wagon shop last week on account of a sun burn.

George Olney is now sandpapering the one horse wagon to give it the final coat of paint.

The new back-board will be finished today by the blacksmiths, another job to be joined.

Tom Young, David Mike and Alex McCoud were busy this week making repairs in the barn.

The Post Office building is almost ready for shingling, a few good days and it will be ready for business.

The wagon shop looks somewhat deserted, all work is done in course of construction is ready for the paint shop.

The carpenters are kept busy putting glass in windows. It does seem as if there are a lot of careless people about.

Fitting saws is now in order for the "William Hunt Wood Choppers" and the "Farmer's Fence Making Gang."

Chas. Newton is making a fine table for the kitchen. It is 10 ft long, 31 wide and 21 in. thick with hard wood on top.

The new wood shed is now ready, the motor is in the new engine room and the saw frame is ready and soon we will be sawing wood by motor power.

Andrew McKay was taken out of the wagonshop to work out training boys, he being given the preference to earn a few dollars on account of his faithful work in the shop.

The wagon shop, jointly with the blacksmith shop, made a wood-saw frame which would do credit to any machine shop anywhere and when connected to the new electric motor, will make the wood fly and make wood sawing a pleasure.

Alfred Connakin and Moses Raub are the champion bakers, Joe Charles and Christopher Gwin are not far behind, and Manuel Rolles and Frank Hamilton are still in the ring also.

The Excelsior.

The Excelsior Literary Society held their first meeting May 1, 1903 of this school term in the auditorium after chapel exercises. The house was called to order by the President at 7:30 p. m. The roll being called found only two members absent, then the minutes of the previous meeting were read and corrected by the society. After the society had transacted all business brought before the house they proceeded with their program which was as follows:

History of society, Wm. Ingram; Vocal solo, Johnnie Raub; Recitation, (Excelsior) Chas. Hicks; Selection by, Excelsior Quartette; The progress and work of our society, Chas. Larsen; Cornical Reading, Nicholas Lewis; Selection by, Excelsior Quartette; Original story, Thos. Young; Vocal solo, Andrew Plourd.

The program was excellent and every member was well prepared.

After the program was rendered a recess was granted by the president, during this recess refreshments were served.

Miss Rowson, Miss Bowman and Mr. Teabo were the only invited guests.

The society was then called to order again and Miss Bowman and Rowson both made interesting and encouraging addresses to the society.

The society sang "My Country 'Tis of Thee," and a motion was made for adjournment and seconded and the society adjourned for this school term at 10:45 p. m.

Mary had a little lamb,

(So the story read,)

It followed her to school one day,

Between two slices of bread,
