

Related School

Too clearing up weather.

The painters are very busy now days.

Drift of rain makes fine gardens, n-tut.

Mr. Henderson planned parties for Monday.

Dr. Clark has the best lawn on the grounds.

Chas. Allen is the best policeman we have in the office.

A school picnic would not be had for a while, regrettably.

The first rains of the season came from Dr. Clark's rose bushes.

Frank and Alex McClintock left today for their home in Montana.

The Ladies Literary society has dissolved for this school year.

The carpenters are making preparations for the laying of the new sidewalks.

Mr. Brewer is drilling his battalion and will have it in position for Decoration day.

Bundeswehr Studentenmeyer is drilling the footboys in marching, mounting, marching, etc.

Rev. McLittie will hold services in the chapel Sunday afternoon and in the evening.

Salto LaPlumbeola went to work for Mr. Frank Isker, agent of the Oregonian, today in Salem.

Frank LaFare is becoming an expert harness maker. Frank takes pains with his work and does it neat.

The remodeling of the brick on the new brick buildings brightens them and adds much to their appearance.

Miss Eva Woods is the house keeper of the Woods family now, and can make as good cake and as nice pies as anybody.

Fourth of July is to be celebrated in Salem great shape this year, over $500 being subscribed on the first census.

Some boys or boys persons in marking on the buildings with a lead pencil. What ever has this to be should be found and severely punished.

Mr. Brewer is putting his companies of boys through the various movements. These drills take place every pleasant evening on the Campus and are inspiring the courage and bearing of the boys.

Mr. John Dean, field secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and the local secretary of Salem will take charge of and hold Y. M. C. A. services. Mr. Dean who has lately returned from the Philippines is a lecturer of ability all about try to hear him.

LOST.—Somewhere on the grounds a gold pin with a small diamond set. Finder please take the same to Mrs. Carthage and receive the reward. Mrs. Carthage regrets the loss of the pin very much because it was given to her by her deceased husband.

Mrs. Campbell, who has been ill with Nervous Prostration was taken to the Salem Hospital the early part of this week. The change has been beneficial as at this writing, she is improving and her early recovery and return to Chemawa is hopefully looked for by her many friends.

Notice, to those who own bicycles—What's the matter of organizing a bicycle league to protect our bicycles from being ridden by every Tom, Dick and Harry that finds a bicycle idle? No one should ride another person's bicycle without permission from the owner of the same.

Do you want to buy some of those scenic photographs that Mr. F. J. Rusty has taken of the different buildings, shows, the graduating class, the company of hunters after a deer and anything that Mr. Rusty has taken at the school? If you do apply to Henry L. Lovelace and look at the samples.

The new motor has arrived and been put in place, the new frame made by Mr. Hibbard the new hinge on gate and frame loaned by Mr. Scott and the whole being engineered by Mr. Becker. As someone remarked, "It is easy and running like a bird." In other words the saw is first class and is doing first class work reflecting great credit on the ingenuity of the above named gentlemen.