

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

The roses are in full bloom.

More clearing up showers.

Mrs. Campbell is reported as being much better.

Lyla Henshaw has gone home for a vacation.

Mrs. McBride and children visited Salem this week.

Miss Harold visited at the school on Thursday.

Farmer Childers has purchased a Columbia Chainless.

Supt. Potter has returned from a trip to Round Valley, Cal.

Mr. E. G. Henderson returned from Albany this morning.

Miss Reason visited to Salem with Mrs. I. L. Patterson Thursday night.

Mr. Brewer has purchased a fine new piano for his daughter Gertrude.

The Duck Bill Gun Club has not held a regular meeting for some time.

Miss O' Hara has been sick for three or four days, but is now convalescing.

Our first base ball team went to Eugene Friday morning to play the State University boys.

Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Smith drove out from Salem last Friday and visited at the school.

Mr. Campbell and Mr. Brewer accompanied the first team to Eugene Friday morning.

Charles Larsen made a flying visit to his home at Astoria and returned Thursday morning.

The Young Men's Christian Association of North America own buildings valued at $20,000,000.

Eddie Brown, after a few weeks' absence, is back in the blacksmith shop once more.

Mrs. Thies sent 216 pounds of carpet rags this week to the weaver in Salem to be made into carpet.

Mrs. McAdams and a little boy of Tacoma, Washington, is visiting her friends Mr. and Mrs. Hill.

Mr. Fench and assistant from Portland are here busy installing electric lights in the new buildings.

Mrs. I. L. Patterson and Miss Gilroy drove out from Salem and visited with Miss Reason Tuesday.

There are only a few cases of sickness in the hospital at this writing, and these only of slight indisposition.

Miss Creta Johnson of Salem visited this week with her brother and sister Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Williams.

The air valves were put in the radiators in the official building this morning. We will soon have plenty of steam heat.

Mr. Arthur Williams is expecting a visit shortly from his brother L. E. Williams, Deputy Assessor of Clatskanie County.

The band gave two or three delightful concerts in the bandstand during the week which were greatly appreciated by all.

No fear of volcanic disturbances in Oregon, and even there were we always have enough water on hand to put the fire out.

If Prince Henry had been assassinated while he was visiting this country it would have cost the life insurance companies $200,000.

Myrtle LaChapelle, a former pupil of Chemawa, brought her little brother to school Friday and returned to her home on the evening train.

Miss Irene Campbell accompanied her father to Eugene Friday morning on a visit to her brother Herbert who is attending the State University.

Several of the employees attended the performances in Salem on Tuesday night and got quite a good writing from the Oregonist in consequence.

Miss Laufman who is attending the school of ophthalmology at Des Moines Iowa, will spend her vacation at her old home in Illinois. She states the school will be out in about six weeks time. Miss Laufman's mother will join her on her visit to Illinois.