Our Ex-students.

Archie Brignone is working on the Steamer Van Tassard from Astoria to Cathlamet and is getting along very successfully.

Geo. Pickford is fitting a position at Brookfield, Washington, and we are glad to hear good reports of his work there.

Joe Sauringer is working on his father's farm near Cathlamet, Washington, and is said to have become an expert base ball catcher, and is one of the main stays of the Cathlamet Base Ball Team.

Miss Emma Woods, who left Chemawa about a year ago was married last month to Mr. George Elliot, of Pillar Rock, where Mr. Elliot is engaged in business. They have a very nice home and Emma keeps it in fine style.

Nettie LaFollette is married to Mr. N. Robertson and is comfortably located at Elio's Landing, where her husband is engaged at fishing on the Columbia River.

Geo. J. Linder, who learned his trade at carpentering, writes that he and Ross are well and enjoying life. He states he is still at work at his trade at Mt. Angel, and has been working since last May on the new college building there.

One of the Chemawa people who is at home writes: "There is no place like Chemawa. It is no luxurious town here; no much of any kind; no pleasure. It seems like here I am amongst strangers, but at Chemawa I am with my brethren and sisters. I feel at home when I am there."

Married one of Our Harness Makers.

Mary Miller, class '96, has charge of the Primary Department at the P. S. School school. She is efficient, capable, a credit to any school. She married an Oregon Indian, Mr. Dodge—(Red Man and Helper.

Note—Mr. Dodge is a graduate of Chemawa and is harness maker at P. S. Belknap, Mountain.

Note—No room for Louis this time, but lookout for next.
