

Local and Personal.

Successful next.

The miss is busy putting up fruit for winter.

Mr. Decker of Calif., is visiting children at school.

Over 200 gallons of pruned butter has been put up to date.

Walter Cox sent us a number of bright toys and girls.

Messrs. Farrow and Calson both have new Bandster bicycles.

Mr. Williams, cook, put up 400 gallons of tomato pickles this week.

Eugene Goffe and Manuel Hoiles are the latest additions to the printing force.

The carpenters are busy fixing up shelves and window screens for the girls' new homes.

Mrs. Campbell has been visiting outing parties in Salem, McMinville and Portland.

Eddie Mann has a brand new little express wagon. Eddie is not very large but is a man (Mama) just the same.

The band filled an engagement at McMinville last week, during the Harvest Festival and Veterans' Banquet.

Mrs. Mitchell and son, Harry LeMaster, visited McMinville last week during the Harvest Festival and Veterans' Banquet.

Richard Becker, ex-pupil and who has been running an engine for a logging camp in Wash., is visiting relatives at school.

Prof. Ganser of Salem stopped in and paid Prof. Sandness over a short visit Wednesday afternoon while out hunting.

From the handsome deer and wolf heads belonging to Mr. Campbell died from the effects of poison administered by some person unknown.

The site for the elementary is all ready staked out, and when the excavating is done, we will be ready for the cellar and foundation walls.

The Cruise Staffs always have on hand a beautiful assortment of Photo Buttons and Photo Frames. They also do as good, if not the best, Photographic work as any Photographic Studio in Salem.

Miss Solberg is the proud possessor of a parrot which she bought and had shipped to her from a live bird dealer in Omaha, Neb.

Mr. Henderson and family departed a few weeks ago for Kansas City, Mo., where the former will finish his course in veterinary science.

Eva Woods is quite a good little house-keeper these days. She took upon herself to can up some fruit, which she accomplished quite successfully.

Lella LeMaster and Emma Wilton, who have been working at McMinville during the winter season, have returned to school to resume their studies.

Charles Carter has gone to Portland to work in a shoe factory for a time, he was always a good helper and faithful pupil here and we shall miss him.

Busy times just now, what with the remodeling of the Administration Building and the vacant place left, makes our grounds look as if a cyclone had struck us.

The stove room off during the kitchen, has been fitted up with many shelves, and now to see them all filled with jars of fruit looks well for our pupils, this coming winter.

Amelia Underhill bids good bye to many of her old friends with sorrow regret. Amelia has gone to Plowox and we wish her the greatest of success in her new home.

Miss Emily Gart has been transferred from this school to Spokane, Washington. Miss Gart won the hearts of many friends while at Chermawa and we regretted very much to see her go.

Mrs. Howard of South Bend, Washington, who has been visiting children at school and relatives in Salem, stopped in the Printing office Monday and subscribed for the AMERICAN.

Miss Noble, the aunt of Mr. Campbell after a very pleasant winter sojourn at all Chermawa has returned to her home at Canby. Miss Noble made many friends by her affable, kindly manner while at Chermawa and we all hope to see her soon again.