

Aug. Duval has joined the printers' firm and now he turned at his case.

Nearly every train brings in several pupils for Chemawa; some new and others returning from their sojourn.

Both Haskell and Garfield was playing whist last fall this year. What Chemawa will do yet remains to be seen.

Between the forests and the moving of the boundaries the rats are having a hard time of it and life is hardly worth being.

We are by the Indian Leader that R. H. D. DeWolfe in the second class had Monday morning an "Christian Citizenship."

Mr. Overman is going south in a few days to inaugurate a series of pupils. He expects to visit Wascoda before his return.

Miss Della Clarke who has been out of school working in Salem for nearly a year is detailed in the morning room this quarter.

Mr. Hattie A. Green has been transferred to Chemawa from Pier Street, Moscow, to fill the place of an additional teacher allowed for this year.

Mr. Crambrell went down to Portland in Monday to meet a party of pupils from Backus who with Mr. Patten was bringing from there.

The basket ball girls are busy practicing. Every evening we hear screams from the gymnasium that show an active interest in this athletic sport.

Mr. Towner of the Cruise Gabley was on his visit and seemed some very fine man of the school. He will soon upon and inaugurate his work.

Last, from where on the school grounds is in the rear of the school yard, a gold broom. Packer please leave at school room No. 1 as in this office.

Erna Farnum and Della Palmer returned to their school this, but we are glad to say they are doing well, thanks to Mrs. Skirret's parental attention.

Miss McArthur passed through this week enroute to Portland on business, but he had not time to give off and visit with us. He brought Alice then with him.

The roses are in full bloom every where. Rose and Chrysanthemums together are well but not at Chemawa.

New boys, new girls, old boys and old girls coming in on every train. Where are we going to put them after awhile? Hurry up with that new boys' building.

The mess' order for one day this week was a box of toothpicks. As that was the complete order one of the office boys wondered to what use they were to be placed.

Miss Inge Campbell prepared a pleasant surprise for her mother on her birthday last Thursday. Miss Bowman, whose birthday came on the same day, shared the pleasure.

Della Palmer, who has been living with Mrs. Harding of Salem, had a pleasant sojourn at Newport. She brought home some pretty elastic and agates, which she shared with her friends.

How many of you are going to hear James at the opera house tomorrow night? We know the good boys will be there. Take police boys and learn all you can from this famous band.

The Capital Journal of Salem says, "It was continuous to do with us in June, and there is some prospect of a rare and a Chrysanthemum show together." Where even in Oregon can you find this?

We failed to note last week that Miss Holton had returned to her post after an extended leave of absence due to sickness. We are glad to report that she has recovered and is feeling better than ever.

Mr. Johnson Williams, Asst. Teacher, has been transferred to the Jameson Day School, Washington, exchanging places with Mr. John H. Wilson, Teacher there. Both gentlemen desired this exchange.

Mr. Henderson, who has been employed at the Chemawa school for a number of years, but who has resigned his position, visited here last Saturday. He went from here to Kansas City where he will take a course in a veterinary college.—[Lander.