

Mr. David E. Brewer, Chemawa's Disciplinarian, has been transferred to the Ft. Shaw School, Montana, to the same position there. It will hardly seem like Chemawa with Mr. Brewer out of it. Mrs. Brewer and children will remain at Chemawa for the present.

Martha John, Mariela John, Tina, Jack, Henry Shaw, Walter Nadin and James Moses arrived from Muckleshoot Reservation, Washington, last Tuesday. Mr. Campbell went to Portland to meet them and bring them to Chemawa. They are a bright nice party of pupils.

The Employees' Mass is growing rapidly these days. We are glad to welcome to our board Mr. M. W. Cooper and his interesting family, also Mrs. Battle Grove. We are now enjoying the use of the front room, which has been vacant for a long time and has been used as a store room.

School Room Notes.

The U. M. class of the Fifth division is all girls.

The pupils of the second division know Beasts.

Two pupils in Mr. Williams' room were in celebration.

Richard Harris has been promoted to class A Fifth Grade.

Mrs. Grove has a happy crowd of little people in her room.

Mr. Williams and Mrs. Grove have their rooms full of happy little people.

The reading grade rooms are being decorated for the fall season.

School work is moving along smoothly, deftly and creditably.

We feel proud of the order in chapel, and this is what it should be.

Wanted.—Three live rats for nature study in school room No. 1.

Good and evil environments were studied by a. m. class of the Sixth division this week.

The grounds around the school building are rapidly acquiring a well cared-for appearance.

Mrs. Grove and Miss Bowman with their flocks of small boys and girls keep our school grounds a model of neatness.

The primary division has been divided, Mrs. Grove taking the Reading Grade and Miss Bowman the First Primary.

Mrs. Campbell took her pupils out Tuesday afternoon to study roots and soils. They had a profitable as well as an interesting lesson.

Have you noticed the west half of the school yard since Miss Bowman with her little ones has taken charge? Surely nothing is ever done so well directed before.

Manuel Hobbs has been promoted to Room 3 class B. Pretty good for a Filipino boy who entered Chemawa two years ago with very little knowledge of the English language.

The Reading Grade pupils are raising a number of caterpillars to put on their winter overcoats. How? Confining them in a well perforated box and feeding them its leaves.

The Fourth division has been moved up stairs. The boys and girls of this division will need their own clothing this winter in the school room under the direction of Miss Miller.

Mrs. Grove has decorated her school room very prettily with rose slips and Oregon Grapes. The study rooms in rose branches and Oregon Grapes, and the play rooms in pressed ferns and specimens for nature study.

There is always something funny happening in the Second Grade. In learning the words to the "Salute", where "I pledge my allegiance to the flag" one little girl shouted, "I pledge my Egypt to the flag," whereupon some explanations.

It is with regret we learn of the transfer of Mr. J. James Williams of Dongrow, Washington. Mr. Williams has given himself one of the most conscientious and agreeable teachers and his associate workers regret to have him go. However we hope the change will be satisfactory in every way.
