

Pupils' Items.

The fall term has set in.

The men are busy hauling wood for the school.

Painters are still working at the girls' building.

The best team is beginning to practice football.

The Epworth club boys made a gravel box yesterday.

Mr. Hubbard and his boys are very busy building the best house.

Miss Meeker is the first new pupil for the sixth grade.

Who can find fault with Oregon after such a lovely fall?

The boys girls are soon going to move into their new home.

They are going to move the elementary school out for the fall.

The boys are busy digging ditches for sewer and water pipes.

Mrs. Thoms and the girls are busy cleaning the girls' new home.

The engineers are very busy laying steam-pipe to the office.

The boys are painting the girls building and it looks at now an ever.

Ed Fager arrived here the other day and is now attending school.

Richard Harris and Willie Columbus are busy painting the girls' home.

We have a new team of horses now and they are pretty well matched.

Chowchow's potatoes are all dried, canned and sent away for the winter.

Mrs. Campbell got a birth-day present yesterday. Some very sweet roses.

Tom McCully will soon be back from the harvest fields of Eastern Oregon where he has been working.

Mr. Westley and his crew have just got through pulling onions and are ready for the next job that is coming.

Richard Harris has done well this year. He has made his way through the fifth B in less than a month and a half.

This morning Mr. Campbell had the boys from the Lodge Boys' Home out after breakfast to mow part of a steam pipe.

Mr. Woods and his boys are busy working on the ship's office since they moved it to the North East corner of the boys building.

All the big boys are sorry that Mr. D. E. Brewer went away. He was the best Disciplinary that Chemawa has ever had.

Captain Platt has just returned to San Francisco from Manila. He brought with him three carabons from Santa Ursula Laha-gona de boy.

It makes things look different, since the office has been moved away. The commissary will be the next to leave its standing place.

Miss Jennie Downie is working for Mrs. Becker and she says she has the best Dornie girl. Jennie is a neat little worker you all know that.

The cool nights and light frosts are turning the leaves of the deciduous trees red and yellow, which looks very beautiful in the woods with the dark green firs for the back ground.

The men that are to build the boys boys' brick dormitory have not begun on it yet, but some men are moving the commissary to another place. They have already moved the office to its place.

Charles Catter, a student of Chemawa has gone to Portland to take vocal lessons under Prof. Boyie. Some time you will hear of him as being the finest bass singer on the Pacific Coast.

Miss Leona Meservey is working in the clothes press and her work is always looking neat and nice. She is the best clothes-press girl we ever had that we all know right where to go for our clothes.

Johnnie Johnson one of our best boys, who left last winter for his home in Alaska, writes from Sacramento, Calif., where he is visiting, and informs us that he will return soon to resume his good work at Chemawa.