

School News.

It has been remarked that Miss Hutchinson is one of the best managers the school has had.

We are pleased to welcome Mollie V. Gilbey, Superintendent at Ugaalla, who is visiting the school.

Northwest Normal College planned over the week to inquire if Chemawa could not borrow them with a football coach.

Sadie Davis returned from her work in Salem, Monday evening, and is glad to be back among her friends once more.

The Rev. Wm. Conroy and wife of Salem and the Rev. Mr. Jones of Newport were guests of Mrs. Campbell Wednesday.

Rebecca Charles said that she was very sorry to leave Chemawa. She said there is no place so good as Chemawa to her.

Leta and Jennie LaMaitre are very proud of a linen gown which their mother purchased in Salem for them a few days ago.

The order in the chapel is excellent, but the marching concert is improved. Brass, up boys and girls. Heads erect, and keep step.

The Y. M. C. A. has reorganized with the election of John Harris, President; Jno. Stacy, Secretary and Chas. Newton, Program-director.

Mr. Joseph Dignals, a former pupil of Chemawa, writes from his home in Bozeman, Montana, that they have had a great deal of snow already.

The ladies are all excited at the prospect thinking they will be able to have their rooms painted or decorated, but the painters give them stony stares.

Mr. Patten writes that in passing through Portland, Sunday morning he attended the Taylor Street Church and was proud to see Charles Carter in the choir and to hear his rich deep bass voice.

Capt. Best of the U. S. Army who is in Manila writes a kind and friendly letter to Manuel Robles. He advised him to get an education and Manuel will then have no trouble in getting a position there.

The painters only wish for a little more nice weather so they can finish the small girls' building and roof hoses.

Ulysses Ferris, an ex-Carlisle pupil visitor of Chemawa this week. He was dressed in the uniform of the U. S. Army of which he was a member during the late war.

Some buckets are being painted and lettered for use in different buildings and are to be kept filled with water and used ONLY in case of fire. They will have "FIRE ONLY" painted on each bucket.

Mother Wheaton, who has devoted her life to visiting the penitentiaries and institutions of the United States and who hurried tirelessly all of them from the Atlantic to the Pacific, conducted our last Sunday evening service.

Manuel Robles was a disappointed boy on Monday. He expected to see some of his Filipino friends who were passing through Chemawa on their way to "Elyas" but they went on to Salem not knowing that we had a station at the school.

In answer to Frank Charles' item last week under the heading of "The Dairy and Farm," Mr. Childers says, "If all my farm boys will take hold and lessen farming no fact so Frank Charles does I will be satisfied. Frank will make a good economical farmer someday."

While we were digging the ditch to put in the steam to the Administration building in its new location, Sam Harris asked who was going to do the work. When told that the engineers and plumbers would be given a chance at it, he replied, "That's good, that will give us a better chance to learn."

Messrs. William Mahone and Hanks Merklebaum, both ex-pupils, ex-principals and the former a graduate of class of 1892 dropped off the 10:45 Overland train last Sunday for a visit at the school, awaiting their transportation to Carlisle, Pa. where they intend to take a collegiate course in Dickinson College. They received a hearty welcome, of course, by the Printers, and are now assisting in the "type slugging department."