

Pupils' Items.

Mr. Cooper is now acting Disciplinary. How pretty it is to hear little singing solos.

The girls are very busy in the sewing room.

The boys were playing football last week.

Mrs. Thoin will soon change the girls' detail.

Some boys were playing marbles this morning.

Mrs. Downie is visiting her children at the school.

Sadie Davis has returned after a summer's outing.

Mrs. McBride was visiting here one day this week.

The children in the fifth grade are all bright and happy.

We hope to see the large girls in their new home by next week.

I saw the eclipse of the moon one evening, with some boys.

The girls practiced basketball in the gymnasium Monday night.

Mrs. Thoin has lost some keys belonging to the new girls' building.

The dining room is getting redecorated and it is looking very nice.

Our Supt., Mr. Potter, went away on Sunday morning looking for pupils.

I came here yesterday on purpose to go to school, I think the school just fine.

The girls are about through making the autumn check dresses in the sewing room.

Mrs. Campbell praised the girls of her grade for coming to school so neatly dressed.

Heisl Poland has entered the blacksmith shop and we all hope he will do well.

Quite a number of our bright girls will finish their course in dressmaking this year.

The football team got up early in the morning at 5 o'clock and practice hard till breakfast time.

Fay Charles returned from her outing home at Eugene yesterday to attend school.

What is the matter with the literary societies, Chemawa? It is time to wake up and show your colors.

We girls will be glad when we move in to our handsome new building. The boys will be jealous of us.

Chemawa is filling up rapidly with new pupils, most all of the old pupils have graduated and gone.

The football boys are now in earnest. You can hear them out practicing long before the rising hugh three.

Mrs. Sherrard keeps the hospital girls very busy at work, and they all mind her very well. She is kind to them all as well as one.

Farmer Childers, who has been acting disciplinary in has returned to his own work on the farm. Mr. Cooper is now in charge.

Mr. Campbell gave a short lecture in the Assembly Hall about writing lines for the Chemawa American, which was very interesting.

The girls went out for a walk Sunday and we all enjoyed it very much. Mrs. Grove took us and we all say "thank you, Mrs. Grove."

Irene Foster says that Haskell is a very nice school, but she would rather be back to Chemawa.

The girls have again organized the society known as "Evangelical sisters" and hope in the near future to give an entertainment to extend all others.

The girls have reorganized the basketball team, those in the first team are as follows:—Eileen Williams, Emily Downie, Della Anderson, Virginia Brown, and Della Clark.

Some boys are going to give an entertainment and try to excel the Evangelical sisters. They will have to do some hard work if they want to excel the girls. The boys who are going to give this entertainment are Albert Mequist, Harry Parrish, Henry Lovelace, Joe Beigunne, and a few others.