

Pupils' Items.

The school is growing larger every year. There are five brick buildings in Chemawa.

Chemawa has a good football team this year.

Mr. Cooper is filling the place of Dickinson.

I am glad that I have learned something in school.

We are all glad to have Fay Charles back with us again.

There aren't two strong, healthy boys in the lumber shop.

Mr. Childers is going to his home in D. Brook for a visit.

The carpenter boys are building a new house at Chemawa.

We are having pretty rainy weather over here at Chemawa.

M. H. Becker, a former pupil, is clerking in a hotel in Conroth, Wash.

Miss Thelma is trying very hard to move west in the new building.

Neelb Shabellin seems to be the best football player on the grounds.

Tracy Hersh is making a nice suit of clothes for Henry Lovelace.

The laundry girls are very busy with the curtains for the McBride hall.

The third grade pupils all like their new teacher who came not long ago.

Miss French and her mother, visited friends in Oregon City, Saturday.

Walter Regan writes that he has entered Dickinson College, Carlisle, Penn.

Vina De Vault arrived Sunday evening. She will go to school here all winter.

Raymond Clay has entered the blacksmith shop and is doing fine work.

Mr. J. H. Wilson of Dungeness, succeeds Mr. Williams as teacher in Division II.

Miss Cloutier, Miss Bowman and Miss Hutchinson spent Sunday in Hayville.

The third grade has a new teacher, Mr. Wilson, and we all like him very much.

Miss Eva Woods left for Salem Thursday where she will attend the Sisters' school.

Mr. Patten brought some new boys and girls here and they are going to school now.

Let us try and make it pleasant for the new pupils so they will not get homesick.

Johnny deer and Beanie deer are getting on very nicely and Johnny has large horns now.

Lena Young has been cooking for Mrs. Campbell for two months and is becoming a fine cook.

The third Grade pupils have a new master we all think that we like him, that is Mr. Wilson.

Dolly Wiggins is the cook at the Hospital. She is very busy running train in this winter.

Three new pupils entered the third grade yesterday and are getting along very nicely in their studies.

The big girls will soon go to their new building and the little girls will have a house of their own.

Mary Jutha is working for Mr. Patten and she does her work very nicely, honest, and she likes the work.

Jefferson Wilson of Blue Lake, Cal., arrived Monday. He has entered the blacksmith department.

Mr. Cooper keeps his boys busy scraping bricks which will be used for the foundation of the commissary.

Mr. Becker and his boys have been setting steam pipes to the Supt's. Office and have got them about completed.

Miss Blanche Davis is attending the Willamette University and she is getting along very nicely in her studies.

The larger boys organized a football team not very long ago and are ready to play against outside teams.

The good order in which the children march in school and their conduct in chapel receive favorable comment.

Mr. Holt and his boys are hard at work in the root house trying to get it ready for the vegetables that are coming in.