

Local and General.

Mr. Houboltz renewed his subscription Tuesday.

Miss Pambrum has entered the B. class in sewing.

Chemawa has a thoroughbred shorthorn Durham calf in its herd.

Miss Maud Hirsch of Salem spent a few days with Mrs. Campbell last week.

Miss Lizzie Westley, of Haysville, was the guest of Miss Gertrude Brewer, Thursday.

The track for the wood cut is being laid from the wood pile to the planing-shop.

Miss Hercules Woodward, of Newberg, and Miss Gertrude Brewer a visit last week.

As this is a fine afternoon Mr. Cabso holds the new flag just as we go to press, and it is a beauty.

The A. class was very busy last week getting dresses made for the girls that went to Carlisle.

Mrs. Woffall went to Portland to meet her brother, whom she had not seen for a number of years.

Beij Neufus writes Joe, Toabe that the Reynolds fox ball team has not been defeated since this season.

Charles Hicks was transferred from the farm to the carpenter shop. Charles was a good, faithful farm hand.

The wind on Monday morning was something unusual for Chemawa. We don't often have a windy day here.

Boys that are patient and rapid milkers are the best for a dairy herd. We have a number of such on our present detail.

Chemawa has a splendid pasture on the lake meadow and we hope want to see this pasture extended over the now utilized land.

James Arquette has entered the blacksmith shop to finish his trade. He has been working in the blacksmith shop at Heshell, and says he has come here to finish his trade.

Mr. Campbell left for the Puget Sound country on Tuesday morning. He expects to bring some pupils for Chemawa from that section.

The sowing of eye and vetch is finished by the farmers, but they had to sow in hard gravel and the result is the seeds are not all harvested in.

We are teaching the boys how to row oars, by taking them away from the row as soon as born, and teach them to duck from a bucket.

We are all in hopes of having ourselves come to our happy home, Chemawa. They are welcome any time if they would only come and join with us.

Eddie Davis is the coacher of the girls' basket ball team and we all hope that he will be strict as to the rules and have one of the best teams on the Coast.

Miss Pambrum and Jane Evans visited the printing office Thursday morning and subscribed for the AMERICAN, for their relatives. Others may do likewise.

The Carpenter boys have had a nice walk between the South Octagon and the main cement sidewalk leading from the main school entrance to the Boys' Home.

Walter Dyke has been transferred to the Wagon shop from the farm and Farmer Childers is not very well pleased with the transfer as Walter Dyke was one of his best hands.

Cora Richardson and Jane Evans start to work this week in the tailor shop, to learn Indian' tailoring, and will go three times a week to the sewing room for studying and cutting.

Mr. Godwin and Farmer Childers were blasting stumps Thursday. It is fine sport for the boys to see the large stumps go into the air. Some of the boys are learning how to blast out stumps.

Miss Rowman said to her Estelle Bock girls that they were doing better work this year than last, and she said if they did well every Thursday evening the Estelle Bock will be one of the best societies this year, so Estelle Bock, work up your society this year.