

Pupils' Items.

There are three new boys on the farm detail.

The rainy weather has started in for the winter.

We are having very wet weather this month.

We have a good lot of sewers in the sewing room.

The Kettle Reel society is going to be the best this year.

You will never be sorry for doing your very best.

Marble playing is now in full blast at Chemawa.

Simon Booth was the star player of last Saturday's game.

Mr. Westley, the gardener, has started to dig his potatoes.

The weather is very stormy, it has been for a week or so.

The Children of Chemawa have written to their parents.

The school room is the place where we learn to read and write.

Mr. Godwin and his boys are busy working around the commissary.

James Arquette and Arthur Peterson entered our school last week.

Mr. St. Pierre said that the boy and girls did fine in reproducing his lecture.

Take care of yourselves. Boys and girls do not get sick this rainy weather.

Some of the boys in the Third Grade are experts with mops and scrubbing brushes.

The sewing room girls are making little girls' school dresses and they are very nice.

John Joe is getting to be a good cook and will soon be a great help in the kitchen.

They are going to have two sinks in the dining hall for the purpose of washing dishes.

Sunday after the Convention was over we went to Mr. Winslow's and took supper. After supper we had the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Scott recite a poem which she wrote herself.

We have fourteen boys and ten girls in our class, and we study hard, and have good order.

The sound foot ball team is trying to arrange a foot for Thanksgiving day with the Willamette University.

The Chapel is the place where every one should sing and pray and we should keep it clean and very neat.

Carlisle defeated Pennsylvania by a score of 5 to 0. Chemawa, can't you give Mub-nomah a similar dose?

The Blacksmith apprentices want the wagonmakers to hurry up and make some wagons, so that they can iron them off.

Leola Fisk is now the head sergeant of the little girls' home and we all hope she will improve in her work.

Simon Booth has painted the walls and ceiling in several rooms of the Hospital and now the rooms look new as ever.

Mrs. Cooper has eight girls in the domestic science room. She is going to teach them how to cook. I am one of her girls.

Raymond Clay is doing very well in the blacksmith shop, I think he will make a good blacksmith, if he just sticks to his trade.

There are twenty two pupils in the fourth grade. We must do what our teacher tells us to do and try to learn how to be good boys and girls.

The delegates who went from Chemawa to the Y.W.C.A. convention in Salem last Friday returned next morning on the eight o'clock train.

The laundry is a place where everybody should learn how to do washing, ironing and starching because it is the place to do that kind of work.

Tracy Hatch, one of our first team foot ball players broke his collar bone last Saturday when playing against the Willamette University boys.

Mr. Wilson, the teacher, has twenty four children in his room and they are getting along very nicely and some boys and girls are going to be promoted to the fourth grade soon of these days.