

We hear whispers of a Xmas cantata.

Practice hard, first team and beat the Multnomahs and Vancouver's.

The first and second team will play a practice game Saturday afternoon.

Subscribe for the AMERICAN. Have your friends subscribe and do it at once.

The railroad to the power house is now completed and is quite a convenience in hauling the fuel for the boilers.

Mr. Godwin will talk to the student body next Wednesday evening on the subject of dairying and the care of cows, etc.

Robert Davis, Jesse Cook, Tom McCully and William Blodgett have returned to Chemawa to resume their pool work, after spending a lengthy vacation making both money and muscle.

Robert Henderson, Chemawa's Genial F. M., will make his debut before the foot lights in a drama given at the Kaiser school house Friday night. They say Bob makes a good policeman.

Ignatius Williams is one of the best clothes press boys we have ever had. He keeps everything neat and tidy, a place for every one's clothes and "every one's clothes" in their place.

Mr. Potter writes that he attended one of the Saturday meetings at Carlisle and that the Colonel gave one of his characteristic strong talks, which he greatly enjoyed and reminded him of old times.

The class in Domestic Science is happy in the possession of new white aprons. We hope the girls in their vanity will not forget to take in the full benefit of their teacher's instructions in the culinary art.

James McHain is busy these days making hammocks. Anyone who wants a first class hand made hammock can get one from him for $2.50 for a double hammock and $1.25 for a single hammock.

Mr. Woodin was seen running this morning, and he was smiling as he was doing it. When asked why he was smiling, he said that he was thinking of Mr. Overman's talk in the chapel, when he said no one ever saw Mr. Woodin run.

There are several men in the Penitentiary at Salem who were educated in the public schools of Portland and according to The Evening Telegram of that city it is reported that the schools of that city are a failure and should be abandoned!!!

Any person who wants pure white Wyandotte cockerels can obtain the same by calling on Mr. Overman at Chemawa, for $1.00 each. We have about a dozen that we wish to get rid of, but they are too valuable to go into the pot.

Many of our new pupils are very much pleased with Chemawa, and speak in very glowing terms of it in their home letters, advising other pupils to come here, and we sincerely hope that they will have no reason to ever change their minds while here.

The foundation is completed under the front end of the commissary and the flour, sugar, beans, etc., are being moved in from the industrial shop building which was used as a temporary storeroom. Bad weather very much retarded the foundation work.

While it seems that the wide civilized world is having bilharzia, scarus and some, we, in the Willamette Valley, are basking in sunshine. The storm extends into eastern Oregon but stops at the base of the Cascade range and we in the Valley are immune.

The Noupriet Society gave a public entertainment in the school chapel on Thursday evening, which was much enjoyed by the whole school. The program was good throughout and the young ladies have the thanks of all who were so fortunate as to be present.

The McBride Hall girls are very proud of their new home, which each day develops some new beauty. The boys are helping by making window seats and other articles for their rooms. The girls will repay them in ruffled and hemstitched curtains, bureau scarfs, table covers and such other articles manufacture of which comes in their line. Boys, you will not find the girls ungrateful. Just wait till Mitchell Hall is finished.