

Local and Personal.

Christmas Cards are all the "go" now. Al's Dapole is borrowing a good type-setter.

Eugene, Charles, and Alice Williams have returned to the school.

Music in the air? Don't you know what it means? A Christmas Cantata.

We have been having some real old fashioned Oregon weather for several days.

Editor Hendricks of the Salem Statesman visited the school on Monday morning.

Charles Larsen acted as substitute teacher in Room 3, during Mr. Wilson's illness.

When the "Wichita lads" got Colonel Pratt on his trail he would have felt like thirty cents.

Reuben Sanders has returned to his old home. He thinks there is no place like Oregon.

Edgar Underwood and Martin Wallan have returned to the school to resume their studies.

Wm. Ingram of our work-yard by the Capital Bakery in Salem, made us a visit Saturday.

We hear that some of the boys are getting up a play which they will present during the holidays.

Salem was full of Chemawa employees on Saturday. Many of them were doing their Christmas shopping.

Mr. Godwin gave us an interesting and instructive talk on milking and butter making on Wednesday night.

The Fifth Grade, A Class, are interested in the Venezuelan situation, as they are studying about South America.

Joe Harris is the possessor of a good bass voice, which with proper cultivation will give his friends much pleasure.

Mrs. Campbell, in trying the little folks' voices, for the Xmas Cantata, found that Katie Brewer had a good voice.

Mr. Campbell gave the boys an excellent talk on Sunday night. Try and profit by the good advice given to you boys.

Richard Harris is hurrying Arnie Carter along pretty fast in the race for the title of best arithmetician in Grade 5. In computing cost of lumber Richard is hard to be beaten.

The little folks of the second grade are happy in knowing all the books of the Bible as well as those of the New Testament. They are now beginning The Ten Commandments.

We see that Mr. Potter was one of the guests of honor at the Catholic Football Thanksgiving dinner. The Holman says it was a full dinner with everything good that goes with turkey.

Manuel Rades, Filipino and printer apprentice, is improving his spare time by giving a young man of the Fair Grounds, Bensonson the minutiae of city codes laws. He gives one lesson a week.

Elp Van Winkle at the Opera House in Salem, with the celebrated son of the still more celebrated Joseph Jefferson, in the title role, will be the attraction for a number of our people on Friday night.

We see by the Holman and Halper that Vann Woolworth is taking a Special Course in Domestic Science, and takes charge of some of the cooking classes under the Domestic Science Teacher's instructions.

The Priscilla Art Club meets weekly. They are doing beautiful work in Bollenberg lace, silk embroidery and darning on crosses and lincolnbuck. Some of the latest wrinkles in fancy work are being developed under the able direction of Mrs. Clatter.

The members of the table at which Mrs. Brantcomb, surprised her by given her a little dinner last Tuesday evening. The occasion being her 29th birthday. The table decorations were very pretty and tastefully arranged. D. H. Wigmore's skill was shown in a very delicious whipped cream cake with Helen's Oatmeal Breaded Bismarck cream and other delicacies. She was the recipient of a large box of French sweets, as well as the congratulations of her friends and best wishes for many happy returns of the day.