

Local and Personal.

Christmas music is being practiced by the school.

The painter apprentices are the best in three years.

Pedro Chetco is a new arrival in the tailor shop.

The choir had a successful rehearsal on Tuesday night.

Amos O'Fall is the best arithmetician in the Fifth grade.

This rain is better than the big deluge of the east, isn't it?

Mr. Overman received his commission as Notary Public last Monday.

Good bye, rascal! They departed from Chemawa last Wednesday.

James Linder is busy making a new division fence in the poultry yard.

Wm. Budgett is making an overcoat for Charles and Clipse Newton's father.

Any one wishing young pruner plants can be accommodated by calling at Room 2.

Miss Kittie Johnson, of Salem, was the guest of Mrs. Williams, her cousin last week.

Missie Hieggan, of Stayton, Oregon, visited with relatives and friends, last week.

Rattle freener will soon be seen using about it a brand new coat, and its going to be a b-o-a-t-o-y.

Fay Charles is making the best of a number of jackets to be made in the tailor shop by our young ladies.

Mr. Harry Beard, the Revere school Band Master, visited with Prof. Staudenmeyer, last Sunday.

Mr. Mann has now got his Night watchman's Clock put up in the office hall, and it works like a charm.

Girls, it is not good taste to let rings on the face. Don't do it, unless you want to spoil your complexion!

Serving food at pupils Dining Hall is finished with some shade on the rest of the floor, as it looks nice.

Mr. Hobbs and his team have about completed the lumber for house and now we will have the lumber running.

We understand that Miss McFadden has had a letter direct from old Santa Claus inquiring about the number of little stockings in her home.

The tasting of the ginger-bread, made by instructions of Mrs. Cooper, is O. K. It does not taste like a little more, but like a big some more.

The Messrs O'Hara, Solvers, Wiggins, and Mrs. Grove went to Portland Friday in the five o'clock train to do their Christmas shopping.

Joe Charles just turned out about 25 nice healthy looking buns. Any body can see them, if they come to the shop before they are all "put away."

If you want to see a beautiful exhibition visit Mrs. Cloutier's archedroom where there is one in bloom. She also has a beautiful collection of wax.

Miss Solvers "Polly" was heard to remark the other evening "Hello kids" wonder if she knows about "Kris Kringle."

Too much can not be said for the very gentlemanly courteous treatment accorded our boys by the officers and men of the 17th U. S. Inf. last fall team.

Ben Garrison and John Matherson are getting to be experts at the sewing machine, both will make good tailor judging by the way they go at their work.

Prof Budgett is a very happy possessor these days, his little baby cousin Winnie keeps him on the go, while out of school. She's an unusually pretty and bright baby.

Twenty-eight nice white chairs were delivered by the painters to the New Girls Building, and smiles spoke more than words could tell as the girls looked at them. The painters have done much to beautify the girls' home.

The Salem Glass Club will give a grand Hospital to the school Chapel Dec. 27 1902, at 7:30 P. M. Everybody is invited to be present. It will be the best musical entertainment that Chemawa has had for some time. Admission only 15 cts. Come one, Come all.