

Local and Personal.

Timmy Potter had a beautiful Christmas tree.

Mr. Wilson took a flash light of the Xmas tree.

Alex. Dupois acted his part well in the Christmas Cantata.

The Carpenters are putting new steps in front of the dormitory.

They are giving out uniforms to the boys in the first company.

Mr. Henderson, F. M. spent Xmas evening in Salem, with friends.

Several of the employes took a flying trip to Portland on Xmas day.

Miss Miller's Xmas was made pleasant by the visit of her mother and sister.

Herbert and Donald Campbell are spending the Christmas vacation with their parents.

Donald Campbell dropped in from California on Wednesday morning in time for Xmas.

Miss Florence Hutchinson, our stenographer, spent Xmas in Seattle, visiting her mother.

Joseph Wallin, '05, time keeper for Swift and Brice, of Seattle is visiting friends in Chemawa.

Mr. and Mrs. Becker and Mrs. Williams were guests of Mrs. Clouder at dinner Xmas day.

Miss Tullie Laufman of Salem visited Miss Brewer at the school during Christmas week.

Clarence Cooper has been heard to express the opinion, that there really is a Santa Claus.

Herbert Campbell came up from Eugene on Saturday to spend the Christmas vacation at home.

Mr. Paulson and son, Frank, of Athena, Ore., spent the holidays with Minnie and Maggie at the school.

Charles Blacketer, Marilyn Wollan and Henry Contrary were valuable assistants in decorating the Xmas tree.

Mr. Potter announced a sociable for to-night and a band concert for Saturday.

Misses Leadora Winslow and Mabel H. Pierson, of Salem, spent Christmas Eve as the guests of Miss Dotson.

Richard Harris is doing some very nice work over in the Melville Hall remodeling the girls' clothes presses.

It has been remarked that Jessie Symington received more presents Christmas than any other pupil at the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Quinn spent Christmas in Portland as the guests of friends, and report having had a very enjoyable time.

Mr. Supervisor Chabcraft left us on Wednesday after a visit of two days during which time he thoroughly inspected the school.

Mr. Woodin's excellent taste was shown in the beautiful "Merry Christmas" and "Happy New Year" which decorated the chapel.

Mrs. Campbell says she owes much of the success of the Christmas Cantata to the teachers who helped the little ones learn the words.

Santa Claus failed to bring Dr. Stephenson the fishing rod that he wanted. It is supposed that the Doctor didn't start "fishing good" soon enough.

Xmas week is always a merry week at Chemawa, with its Sociables, Band Concerts, Cantatas and entertainments. You should have been here.

Mr. Campbell had a beautiful fragrant bunch of roses on his dinner table Christmas day, which was picked in front of the Superintendent's cottage.

The Chemawa stockholders of the California Home Mine have "visions" of coming millions and are already busy planning how to spend them.

Mr. Overman is anxious to start the new incubator. Winter doesn't bother the little chicks at Chemawa. We will raise 1000 young chicks this spring.

One of the most pleasing entertainments given for a long time was the Xmas Cantata, rendered entirely by the little folks under the direction of Mrs. Campbell.