1908. WINTER. 1908.

Web-foot.

Sunshine!

What is the color of snow?

There has been no snow at Chemawa this winter.

The girls all have nice uniform dresses for school.

The girls are making winter dresses in the sewing room.

Mr. St. Pierre gave us a very interesting talk, last Sunday evening.

The band gave a concert in the assembly hall, last Saturday evening.

If you wish some delicious cakes, call on Addie Gelfax at the hospital kitchen.

The foot-ball season is about over. Next comes the base-ball season and we will all be glad.

The Estelle Reels and Deweys are going to have a joint meeting the next time the societies meet.

Mrs. Campbell received a pretty present from Mr. Peter Collins of Siletz, who spoke very nice of her.

The McBride Hall girls set up until half past nine and ten o'clock sewing carpet rags for their building.

Mary Jotha is very anxious for the Dewey's and Estelle Reels' joint debate to come off, as she is one the leading speakers.

Since the stage has been extended in the gymnasium it adds much to the pleasure of the seating capacity of the band boys.

Supt. Snell and Supt. Potter went to see Shore Acres at the Grand Opera Wed. night and walked home after the performance.

The girls at the McBride Hall are through sewing carpet rags for the reading room and will soon start on the carpets for their rooms.

Katherine McDonald is studying very hard in school at present, and we all hope she will be ready to go into the fifth grade, by spring.

The carpet in the large girls' reading room is very pretty, and we know the girls are proud of it.

If the Deweys want to keep up with the Estelle Reels, they will have to hurry up. It doesn't take long for the Estelle Reels to push up to the front.

Miss Irene Campbell had a very enjoyable time during the holiday, playing Ping Pong with Herbert and Donald, her brothers. Herbert was the champion.

A number of employees and pupils went to see Shore Acres, at the Grand Opera in Salem, Tuesday evening, and report having witnessed a good funny play.

Welcome Sunshine! Several days lovely spring weather this week. In Phoenix we read where they jumped with joy and welcomed two days rain that fell recently.

The Estelle Reels are doing very nicely this year in their work. Keep it up Estelle Reels, and you shall be one of the leading societies, at the end of the year.

Mr. Mann's nightwatchman's clock is such a great hit that he has sent a diagram of it to the patent office at Washington, D. C., with an application for a patent-right.

We, the Estelle Reels, are waiting for the Deweys to challenge us for a joint debate. What is the matter with them this year? They seem to be afraid of us. They do not show up.

The Reporter, the other day, dropped in on Mrs. Cloutier and Mrs. Bowman and found them busily engaged in unwinding yarn from the hank in the real "old-fashioned way."

Haynes DeWitt is becoming quite skillful at his trade, the carpenter's and has just finished a beautiful book case for himself, which would do credit to a first class journeyman.

The Chemawa Girls' B. B. team play Willamette University girls at Chemawa on Jan. 10, 1903 and the Corvallis Agricultural College girls, Feb. 13th. Other games will be arranged.
