Local and Pupil Items.

Sadie Davis is small girls' Sergeant and they all like her.

It is nice and sunny now, and the boys are beginning to play baseball.

Leona Meservoy and Alvina Collins are now working at the Cottage.

Floyd Lovelace and Minnie and Ellen Hickman were enrolled as pupils, last week.

Amos Coffelt, Raymond Clay and Julia Selatsie have been promoted to the Sixth Grade.

Mrs. Brewer returned Tuesday from Tacoma, Washington, with a party of four pupils.

Mr. and Mrs. Caisse are now in their new quarters and feel much at home at this writing.

Miss Jessie McCloud of Tacoma, Wash., has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Caisse, for the past week.

Mr. Archie Pillard of Altoona, Washington, was visiting with friends and relatives, the first of the week.

Donald and Herbert Campbell after spending the Christmas holidays at Chemawa have returned to their respective Colleges Stanford and the State University.

The choir had a long rehearsal on Tuesday night. The members of the choir are anxious to have new books.

Robert Cameron, Clarence Byrd and David Lewis have been promoted from the B. Class to the A. Class of the Fifth Grade.

Elvira Parrish is going out in the country, Saturday and return Monday, to visit one of her friends and we hope she will enjoy her visit.

Mr. Becker has sixteen husky boys in the engineer and plumbing department and the way he will have his work done will not be slow.

The masquerade grand march was one of the best and the funniest we have ever seen at Chemawa. The order was excellent yet there was lots of fun.

Mr. and Mrs. Caisse and Mr. and Mrs. Farrow are now located in their new dwelling house, which was formerly better known as the Bachelors' hall.

Minnie Hickman, Philip and Frank Sorahan have entered the Fifth Grade, class B; George Washoe and Minnie Brown have entered the A. class of the same grade.

The Nonpareils held their society in room No. 3, this week. The time was devoted to the election of new officers, for the coming quarter. The officers are:

Emily Downie, President; Mary J. Smith, Vice President; Emma Wilbans, Secretary; Fay Charles, Treasurer; Jennie Downie, Sergeant-at-arms.

Manuel Robles, who has been here only a short time, made a good excellent speech in our debating society last night. He brought out some fine points and a great deal better than some of the boys who sit there laughing at him and were here twice as long as he was. Good for Manuel. Keep on and look forward.

One of the girls who wears her hair Pompadour and thinks she knows more than some other people has the following to say. She has the big head in two ways, Pompadour and swelled. She says,—“The girls are waiting for the next AMERICAN to come out because they want to see what it has to say about the girls new style of hair”
