

Items by Pupils.

We had a few pleasant days last week.

Save your money if you want to be rich.

It is a simple thing to learn your lesson if you study hard.

This is the 23 of January and we have not had any snow.

The pupils of Chemawa have not seen any snow this winter.

Fire buckets have been placed in the halls of school building.

The band boys have arranged a table and a company of their own.

Addie Cameron's hand will soon be well so she can attend school again.

The farm boys are hard at work taking up stumps and burning them.

Carrie Radcliff is working in the sewing room and she is getting along fine.

Mr. Overman and Tracy Hatch are making a new fence for a chicken yard.

The Third Grade pupils had their picture taken out on the school house steps.

Joseph Moses is the latest arrival at the school and entered the fourth division.

Willie Wirnier has succeeded Yeppe Nelson as janitor in the school building.

The A class of the eighth division are having a hard time with debits and credits.

Alice McDonald is the small girls' clothes press girl and the clothes look very nice.

Clorinda Blodgett and Lena Goodal were promoted to the third grade and are doing very well.

Lottie Lane, of the A class eighth grade received the highest standing the last examination.

The band of mercy had a nice program last time and we hope they will have a good one again.

Charles Hicks has been on the sick list, but he is getting strong again and is attending his studies.

Irene Campbell is teaching in Room 2 until the arrival of the new teacher who has been appointed.

Mrs. Godwin paid friends and relatives a visit Wednesday evening and Thursday in Salem.

The large girls are going to have a fine reading room in their new home of which they should be proud.

The tailors, carpenters, wagon makers, and harness makers have moved in the new industrial building.

The plumbers are busy digging ditches and laying water pipe to sprinkle the lawns with, on the school grounds.

There are some Chinamen working on the railroad track in Chemawa, they are going to stay two or three months.

The painters are through painting the root-house. They have the roof painted also, and it looks very fine.

The sewing room girls are busy making the basket ball girls' dresses, they are also making dresses for the other girls.

Some of the pupils in the fifth grade, B class, are getting along nicely. We hope they will be promoted to the A class by Easter.

Mr. Godwin and the boys that are working with him are making big improvements in the looks of the field back of the school building.

The Nonpareil Society had a lively debate last Thursday. They will have a joint debate next Thursday with the Reliance Society.

The Domestic Science girls this week are doing some fine cooking, and wish they could work there longer in order to learn more about cooking.

The friends of Elvira Parrish are very sorry to hear of her leaving Chemawa, to return home with her parents. They are here to take her home.

We are all glad to see Henry Contraro with his pleasant face in the band. Good for Henry he has been practicing very hard till at last he was enrolled.

Jennie Downie has become one of the subs of the first team basket ball and we hope it will not be long till she will be a player of the first team.