

Items by Pupils.

Sunday was a regular spring day.

We have good order in our class.

Mrs. Mitchell is still on the sick list.

I saw the boys playing Brass Band this morning.

Six new pupils arrived last Tuesday morning.

We have one new boy, Jeffries Wachenc, in our class.

The longer I stay at Chemawa the better I like it.

We are all glad to see Addie Cameron back in school.

Mr. Cooper gave us a fine lecture last Wednesday night.

Jane Evans is doing some fancy work, in the Tailor shop.

There are new pupils coming in on almost every train.

We are all glad to see our Superintendent back with us again.

It snowed the other day but it didn't stay with us very long.

Phillip Sorahan and Joe Moses are late arrivals in the tailor shop.

Mr. Potter returned home from Washington with some pupils.

Girls and boys we must try to do our best to be good students in school.

Several new apprentices have been added to the Engineer's department.

We are having wet weather this week and the farmers can not go to work.

We are all glad to have Miss Addie Saylor back to Chemawa again with us.

Lena Kirk is now taking music lessons, and she is getting along very nicely.

Jefferson Wilson has been promoted from the Fourth to the Fifth Grade.

Mr. Kershaw of Grand Ronde brought some pupils from there yesterday.

We had a little of "the beautiful" on Monday, just enough to make a lot of slush.

Joseph James has returned to Chemawa and has entered the Fifth Grade, B class.

Mr. Cooper delivered a very fine address last night and we believe that all of the pupils enjoyed it.

Miss O'Here is glad to have Delia Clark back in the sewing room, she is a neat, good hand.

We have been having snow off and on for several days. Now we are having some rain.

Miss Lillian Patrick of Illinois arrived at Chemawa on Sunday morning. She will teach the fifth grade.

The basket ball girls are going to play with the Corvallis team on the 22nd of next month.

Elvira Parrish who went to her home in California last week, is greatly missed in the sewing room.

Mrs. Brewer's laundry girls are very fast in their work. Their work is always finished by Friday morning.

There has been some terrible days this week, there was snow, rain, and hail and the wind blew pretty hard.

There has been a flood between Eureka and Seattle, Wash., caused by the overflowing of the Green river.

Why does Albert Meacum, and Jesse Crook always use the small black-board in the seventh-grade school-room?

The Band needs more members, but they should have some experience before expecting to jump into the band and play.

The boys' first and second teams of basket ball are going to play together next Saturday night. Admission five cents.

Cora Williams has come to school here and the girls that come from Puyallup were very much delighted to see her.

The laundry girls have washed and ironed 4,997 pieces, this week. That is the average work done by the girls each week.

Thursday afternoon Evaline McCoy brought her work to school and began to sew and Miss Miller told her that they weren't doing that kind of work in school, yet Evaline seems to be anxious to learn how to sew, I hope that she will soon be an expert at sewing.
