

Future Home of the Small Boys.

This building which has been used in the past and is at present, occupied by the large boys, will soon be turned over to the small boys, the large boys to occupy the splendid brick dormitory to be erected in the near future at a cost of $25,000. The building represented in the above picture has a 50-foot frontage and is a little over 20 feet deep. The new building will be erected just inside and a little south of the main entrance to the grounds, and will be in a direct line with the large girls' new home.

Local and General.

Mr. E. D. Godwin is visiting relatives and friends in Tigerville, Oregon.

Mrs. Z. J. Riggs and Mrs. Clara E. Reading, of Salem, were visitors here on Monday forenoon, returning to Salem in the evening.

Miss Theresa Chesaw, Class '02 does not forget old Chemawa, as she has just renewed her subscription for the American Student working in a lady shop in N. W. H. C., having learned ladies' tailoring while here.

Noted Visitors.

Chemawa will be honored on Monday next by the members of the Oregon Legislature who are coming in a body to visit the school. They will arrive on the 4:30 p. m. train and return to Salem on the 10:30 overland.

The industrial department and buildings will be inspected immediately upon the arrival of the delegation, and after dinner a grand band concert and entertainment will be in order. A most pleasant time is anticipated.
