

Local and Pupil Items.

Eunice Ciffelt is a very neat worker.

Winnie Downie is learning to keep house.

Louisa Murray is working in the McBride Hall and keeps it very neat.

John Olofson came to school with a genuine shave Tuesday morning.

Joe Carasco is doing good work in the Second Grade.

William Bean said he did not pay him to run away.

Mr. Overman went to Portland Tuesday evening on business.

John Stacey kindly volunteered to carry meals to the sick boys this week.

Walter Dyke has the making of a good sergeant for company D.

Joe Chesaw is working in a shoe shop in Nelson, B. C. and is doing well.

Tommy Potter obtained the reward offered by Mrs. Cloutier, for finding her keys.

Mrs. Hill has been assisting Mrs. Sherrard in the hospital the last few days.

One of the Chemawa young men thinks, there is but one girl, and she lives in Chemawa, who knows how to make good pies.

"Practise what you preach" may be good or bad advice. It depends on what you preach.

The Plumber Shop has at present the largest working force that it ever had at any one time.

Frank Decker is office sergeant to the Disciplinarian. Frank is always to be depended upon to do right whatever he undertakes.

Willie Archambault is a number one good hand in eating for the boys wash room. That is right Willie, faithfulness in small things brings promotion to greater things.

The eighth division are learning to distinguish between the past tense of some irregular verbs and their participles, such as saw and seen, and did and done.

The first symptom of ambition should be an improvement in one's work.

The calisthenic drill should be taken up. What are a gymnasium, Indian clubs and dumb bells for?

We are all very glad to see Emma Cayon out of the hospital and going to school again.

The girls are going to have nice uniform dresses this year, and they are very glad to have nice new dresses.

We had a fine entertainment here in Chemawa, every body enjoyed it, it was the best ever given in Chemawa.

Helen Johnson did her part very nicely in the dumb bell drill which was gotten up by Miss Miller.

WANTED—A four-horse power alarm clock with attachment for upsetting beds.
—[STONEY HEART.

When I first came, I did not know any thing, I did not know where to go, I did not know anybody but Jacob Manning, now I like Chemawa.

We are glad to see Sadie Davis out of the hospital so she can attend school and work.

The marching of the boys is improving, but there is plenty of room yet for further improvement.

Mr. Godwin and his boys have done some splendid work clearing the east field during the past two weeks.

We regret to hear of the serious illness of Mr. Childers, who is visiting his mother in Illinois, and hope that he may speedily recover.

Many a business exists on the fundamental principle that when the average man has spent fifty five cents he doesn't care what becomes of the rest of the dollar.

We are glad to note that Solomon George is recovering from a bad case of homesickness. He is going around now with a good broad smile and says he is "feeling fine." Chemawa is sure cure for that disease, and only one in a hundred are ever troubled with it here.