

Local and General.

Scrivettes were fashionable this week.

A baseball schedule for this season is being arranged.

Miss Wilford Linnville, of Corvallis was the guest of Miss Dolan last week.

Julia Selatie is one of the most workers of the sewing room.

The sewing room girls are busy cutting out the new duck dresses.

Frank Charles has gone out in the country to work.

They are hauling wood for the plunder shop, and it makes the boys feel happy because it is so close to the shop.

The decorations in the chapel have been removed, but we look for something very fine after the Lenten Season.

James Howard, a bright boy from St. Paul, Oregon, has entered the school. He is in Grade 5, Class A.

Frank Yapien arrived from Blackfoot Agency last week and was enrolled as a pupil.

Benjamin Garvin is practicing a song for the big society meeting to be held on Thursday night.

The Chemawa Boys' Basket Ball team have lost every game they played this year, and the girls have won every game. Boys, hat's the matter?

How leading it is to see when passing through the hospital dining hall the way Mary Julia keeps every thing in order and so neat and clean.

Mr. Potter has given the pupils of the sixth grade some quite hard sentences in language to correct. But work hard boys and girls and you will conquer them.

It is a pleasant sight to look out on the town and see the rolling and other birds so happy and contented with Chemawa. The other day there were between the cottage and the office nearly 200 robins are there. This speaks well for the small boys of Chemawa.

The Chemawa Band will start on a tour next month and give concerts in the largest towns in Oregon, Washington and California, going as far north as Victoria, B. C., and as far south as Los Angeles.

Senior July Garpis & Filpton is a visitor at the school and addressed the students on Tuesday evening. His talk concerning the Hawaiian Islands and the Philippines was very interesting.

John Harris tried to cut a eye on his eye with alcohol and suffered more than he expected to suffer when the alcohol ran in to his eye. He's all right though, and his eye are as bright as ever.

We are much pleased to receive the fourth Biennial Report of the State Board of Horticulture, for which we now think to Commissioner Reynolds. It is a book full of instructive and valuable information.

The Chemawa Girl's Basket Ball team defeated the Oregon Agricultural College girls in the case of 8 to 2. It was a hotly contested game and this is the second the Corvallis girls have been defeated by our girls and we rightly think championship of Oregon.

Mr. Charles A. Gray, of Salem has secured the contract for building the new high dormitory for large boys and some are already hauling sand and gravel for the foundation work can be started at once. This building will be called Milledale Hall after the Honorable John H. Miller, United States Senator, who served faithfully in securing the appropriation for the same.

The Exquisite Literary Society had an interesting debate Thursday night on the question whether cigarettes were more injurious than whiskey. The subject was 15 to 18 in favor of the cigarettes. Miss Dolan, their critic, complimented the speaker on the manner in which he handled the subject, expressing the hope that they keep up the same lively interest throughout the year.