

Items by Pupils.

The contractor is now beginning to build the large boys' house.

The Exchange Literary Society will give a public entertainment Thursday evening.

The little girls say that Alice McDonald is a good quarter master.

Jula Horner has returned to Chemawa to take up the trade of ladies' tailoring.

Fannie Hark is the small girls clothes presser and they all like her very well.

Mr. Wesley and his boys have begun to plant early potatoes, radishes and turnips.

The girls are glad to work in their new piece of work, especially the dining hall.

Sunday Miss Huffman took the little girls out for a walk. As they were coming back they were caught in a hail storm.

Somebody asked Violet Dupuis what she was going to be in future life. She said she was going to be a fleet ship cook.

Sergeant Mr. Donald is working in the dining hall and is proud of her white table cloths.

Thomas Williams is the smallest boy but working the garden detail and he is a very good hand.

Mr. Wesley has been appointed as one of the judges on the debate which will be given Thursday night.

President Roosevelt will pass through here in about a month and thousands are so tight set to see him.

The Dwyers' and Eustice Rows' will have a social debate next meeting. The Dwyers' expect to have some elegant speeches.

Thomas McCully is taking a lay off on account of his injured hand. He told me he was with an accident in the blacksmith shop.

Miss Howard who has been sick in the hospital is now well and going to school and attending to her work in the dining hall.

We worked all day last week leveling up the lawn before the rain.

The Billiam's Society is going to have a debate before the school in chapel next Thursday.

Alice Williams is working in the sewing room and is learning to sew very nicely and is very proud of her work.

Miss Lella Smith is working in the sewing room and we all hope she will succeed in being a good dressmaker some day.

The carpenters are putting a new floor in the sewing room and the girls will be pleased to get back into the old sewing room again.

The boys who have been working in front of the Melville Hall, have improved the look of the lawn very much, and the large girls are all pleased to have it done.

Mr. Cooper who has been disciplinarian has his position back as industrial teacher. He was just acting disciplinarian with the other one gone. Mr. Davis came Monday morning on the train.

Katherine McDonald is working in the sewing room, and is making a new dress for herself and is very proud of her work. She says she will try and have it made by Friday next.

All the sewing room girls are making white spears for themselves, and it will not be long before they will be seen with them marching to the sewing room. Won't they shine?

We are expecting to have a red hot baseball game with the Angel boys next Saturday. They wanted us to come up three last Saturday and play them, but we were not prepared to play. We have had no practice yet.

Monday and Tuesday the boys worked all day. Some went to their shops and others worked at the lawn. But now I tell you the lawn shines. But also we ought to be thankful for the good days we are having. We are having spring days, but down where I live I think they haven't had a good day yet.