Hot Shots.

(From the Indian Herald.)

Do you belong to a clique?

Are you sewing seeds of discord?

It does not take a wise person to find fault.

Do you do your duty by the government and the Indian?

He who attempts to cover the stealing of another is as guilty as the thief.

Is some one else doing the work for which you are paid?

Every Indian school should have a library suitable for the pupils of the school.

Each employee should attend strictly to his or her own business. You do not want others to interfere with your work.

Foot-Ball Boys Banquet.

One of the most enjoyable events of the season was the annual banquet given under the auspices of the Chemawa foot-ball team in the gymnasium last Thursday evening.
The guests assembled early and after a brief address of welcome by Mr. E. D. Godwin, manager of the team, the grand march was struck up. To the sweet music of Mr.
Stoudenmyer's orchestra a short dance program was pleasantly indulged in, after which all retired to the banquet room, where a sumptuous feast was spread.

To one who has been entertained on similar occasions by these boys, a description of this affair, to show that a royal good time was enjoyed, would be useless.

The following toasts were responded to, E. D. Godwin acting as toastmaster: Support of the Teams by the School, H. E.
Mann; Duties of a Captain, Edward Davis; Care of a team, Jas. Smith; History of past Team, Silas Moon; After a few remarks by Reuben Saunders, Superintendent Potter, gave a short but interesting address; urging the boys on to future victories and in behalf of the invited guests, thanked the boys for their kind hospitality during the evening.

Sunday School Convention.

The quarterly Sunday school convention which met at Chemawa last Sunday, March 29th was a decided success. The attendance was unusually large and the well prepared subjects from the different districts spoke well of their spiritual interests in the Sunday schools; every subject being ably handled and well discussed.

The convention was called to order by President McFarland, Rev. Sweeney leading in prayer. The quarterly review was then taken up, followed by the different subjects which were read and discussed.
Before closing it was decided by vote that the next quarterly convention should be held at North Howell. At this meeting new officials will be elected for the coming year.

Work on the boys' new dormitory has been somewhat retarded the past week on account of the inclemency of the weather and the slow arrival of material. Despite these obstacles Contractor Gray is pushing the work with all possible speed. The foundation is completed and with favorable conditions the brick walls will be started by the first of next week. Some difficulty has been experienced in getting lumber to the grounds, however this trouble has been somewhat overcome by the arrival of two carloads this week. A carload of cement arrived Tuesday and also several carloads of brick arrived during the week.
